P-TA Awards Presented To Outstanding Local Residents

Recent highlight in local P-TA units has been Founders' Day, coupled with the presentation of honorary life membership awards to members and citizens who have devoted outstanding service in Parent-Teacher as well as community and church activities.

The sums paid for these honorary life memberships is donated to a fund for P-TA scholarships and fellowships. These scholarships are awarded to qualifying students to further their education in professions such as teaching, nursing, social service, and other fields beneficial to child welfare.

TORRANCE COUNCIL P-TA
Two outstanding persons in the Torrance district were named recipients of honorary life memberships at the February Founder's Day meeting of the Torrance Council P-TA. Dr. Howard Woods was cited for his lifelong dedication to the good mental and physical development of children, and Mrs. Eleanor Ruffie for her constant devotion to P-TA and church work.

NO. TORRANCE P-TA

SEASIDE ELEMENTARY
Founder's Day was observed February 10 at the Seaside P-TA. Honorary life memberships were awarded to Robert Fulton and William Morris, Seaside school, and was named because of the interest he has shown in school activities as well as the children of the school. He has been at Seaside since its founding.

Morris was presented with the award in recognition of his work with the scouts.

WALTERIA P-TA
Walteria P-TA highlighted its February 10 association meeting with awards of honorary life memberships to Mrs. C. W. Johnson, Robert Waegner, and Miss Virginia Stallings.

Mrs. Johnson has worked six years in the P-TA, and is incumbent president.

Waegner has been active in scouting since he came to the community five years ago, and the award was sent to Miss Stallings in Texas, where she has subsequently moved since teaching at the Walteria school.

C. Nestierode made the presentations.

HALLDALE AVENUE P-TA
Mrs. E. E. Salcido, Halldale Avenue P-TA president, was named recipient of the association's 1955 P-TA honorary life membership award. The presentation of the award for outstanding and unselfish service to youth and community, the highest honor that P-TA can bestow on an individual, was made to Mrs. Salcido at the Founder's Day meeting February 10.

NARBONNE HIGH P-TA
Pat Turner, boy's vice-principal, was the recipient of an honorary life membership at the February meeting of Narbonne High P-TA. C. L. Wilson was honored with an honorary life membership at the February meeting of the 259th Place P-TA. Wilson has been associated with the P-TA for the past ten years, has spent much time and service in improving the school grounds, and served as safety and welfare chairman on the board. In 1951, when the P-TA made 100% membership for the first time, he provided a treat for each child at the school.

"Triangles" Meeting
Small groups of members called Triangles are meeting together in homes and at the YW building for fellowship and to make plans for fund-raising. Participating in the membership Triangles are members of the Y-teen clubs and also several "mystery women," non-members who are interested in helping. Each group has a goal to raise.

Triangle leaders are Mesdames H. Glen Babcock, Arie Blackman, Wm. C. Boswell, Rufus Sandstrom, P. M. Grossman, Kenneth Clutter, Minnie Solomon, Thomas Westfall, A. E. Palmer, Darrel Smith, Paul Shinoda, Joseph Rogan, W. T. Randall, Ralph Davis, Warren Hamilton, L. A. McCoy, and Miss Pauline Greer.
