

Small Fry Gather to Fete Pamela Boswell

The W. C. Boswell's patio and den was the scene last Saturday, March 19, of a happy gathering as small friends gathered to help Pamela Boswell celebrate her fifth birthday. Color books and crayons, paper dolls and small scissors were given each young guest preceding the luncheon. Absorbed in these projects around the patio table were Sharon Habler, Margo Whitney, Debra Dyer, Nikki Harestead, Stevie Capps, Cindy Lou Littleton, Janice Baker, Pamela Klinzing, Barbara Prout, and the honoree.

Also present were Sharon's parents, the Adam Hablers of Redondo, Mrs. Taylor Whitney, and Mrs. Louis Dyer.

Young guests invited but unable to attend due to various well-known childhood ailments were Carol Wierk, Prissy Ray, Patricia Pavne, and Sandy and Sherry Adams.

The same morning papa Boswell drove home a shiny new car... could it have been a present for Pam?

Co-sponsors of Hobby Show Meet to Outline New Plans

Outlining plans and new ideas to promote the success of the forthcoming Hobby, Art and Flower Show on May 6, 7, and 8, the joint sponsors, the JayCettes and Torrance Garden Club met last week at the home of Mrs. Charles Herren.

CARD PARTY

The St. Anthony's Guild of St. Margaret Mary's church will sponsor a card party tonight, March 24, at the auditorium of the parish. Mrs. Jean Berseth is perfect of the guild, and announced that prizes and refreshments will be featured. The event is open to the public.

15th Birthday

A spaghetti dinner and a theatre party highlighted the fifteenth birthday party of Pat Turkmany on March 17. St. Patrick's Day, at the J. J. Turkmanys, 1304 Madrid avenue.

Pat's young guests gathered around the table decorated in a St. Patrick's Day motif included Linda Lindo of Los Angeles; Kathy Schott and Nancy Farrell of Torrance; and Shirley Braun of Inglewood.

Swim Party

A swimming party was enjoyed last week by the boys of the newly-formed Boy Scout

WSCS Showing of Spring Fashions Hailed Success

LOCAL STYLES APPEAR AT COLORFUL AFFAIR

The first fashion show sponsored by the WSCS of the Waleria Community Methodist church was hailed a success, as spring styles from the Gay Shop of Torrance were applauded at the colorful affair held last Friday evening in the social hall of the church.

Co-chairmen of the event were Mmes. Frank De Caro and Wilbur McFarland, and program chairman was Mrs. William Mitchell.

A verdant backdrop of potted plants from the Palos Verdes Begonia Farm provided a garden setting for the fashions described by Mrs. Robert Cramer, narrator, and modeled by Mmes. John Gall, William Burgner, George Stark, Hubert Rampley, John Williams, and De Caro.

Casual to Formal

The models displayed attire suited to every occasion from casual to the formal... Italian influenced tapered pants were followed by lovely casual dresses for all ages. There were the inimitable Lilli Ann suits of luxury fabrics, as well as casual suits and coats, with the show closing on a glamorous note as the after-five designs were modeled with all their irresistible touches of intricate detailing and gay coloring.

As the parade of fashions passed the spotlight, soft background music was furnished by Mrs. Pauline Moorehead.

Other Chairmen Named

Decorations chairman was Mrs. Charles Beck, while publicity for the event was handled by Mrs. W. W. Cunningham. Refreshments were supervised by Mrs. John Chiaudano, and Mrs. Carol Allison supervised the make-up. Outstanding coiffures of the models were done by the Waleria Style Center.

The program included accordion music by Miss Melba Jean Allen and an interpretive dance by Miss Ronnee Le Master from the Granger Dance studio. Mrs. Mitchell, program chairman, also presented a solo.

Door prizes were awarded throughout the evening.

Charlotte Lukes Resigning From Local Y In September

The resignation of Mrs. Charlotte Lukes, branch director of the Torrance YWCA, effective September 1, was received at the last meeting of the Branch Committee on Administration.

JOBIES HOLD COURTESY NITE

On Tuesday night, March 15, the Torrance Bethel 50 held its courtesy night. There were guest officers from three other Bethels, Wilmington, San Pedro, and Lomita.

Honored Queen Carol Maloy reminded the girls of the mother-daughter banquet to be held Thursday evening March 24, at the Torrance Methodist church.

OES Social Club To Meet

The "OES" Social Club will meet at the Masonic Temple, 1321 1/2 Sartori avenue, on Saturday, March 26, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Lois Lougese will be hostess for the evening. Members and friends are invited.

Mrs. Lukes in her letter of resignation expressed her feelings that with the termination of her work in Torrance next September she would be completing a unit of progress in the association.

With 'Y' 6 Years

Mrs. Lukes has been with the Torrance YW for six years, having been employed in September of 1949 by the Harbor District YWCA Board to work in Torrance. When she came to the local YW it was a program center with a small office on Post street. The Y then moved to office space on Sartori, and from there to the present branch building made possible by the Junior Woman's club and other community co-operation.

Woman's Club Preparing One-act Play

Rehearsals are under way for a one-act play to be presented at the Torrance Woman's Club Reciprocity luncheon in April. Mrs. W. C. Boswell, drama section chairman of the club, has announced.

Members of the Woman's Club will participate in the show, which will be directed by Jack Hudson, director of Torrance's new civic theater association, Accent Theatre.

The "loan" of Hudson, as well as the backstage assistance of Mrs. Beverley Dyer, also of Accent Theatre, is the first gesture of the community aid division of the little theater group. This division is promoting a program to be called Accent Community, whereby civic groups may obtain volunteer aid of directors, actors, and technicians for their drama programs.

Mrs. Boswell is producing the show to be presented April 6 before Woman's Club members and their invited guests from other clubs.

Leland P-TA Sets Hobby Fashion Show

A Fashion and Hobby Show, sponsored by Leland Street School P-TA, will be a feature of the pot-luck luncheon to be held from noon till 1:30 Tuesday, March 29, in the educational building of the Grand View Methodist church at 1073 22nd St., according to Mrs. Lilly Payne, ways and means chairman.

Work done by the adult education classes that meet at Leland, will be displayed and modeled by those who made the articles. An added feature will be the display of hobbies.

Those desiring to display their work should contact Mrs. Payne or Mrs. Douglas Brazell, president of Leland P-TA or bring them to the building the morning of the affair. Tickets may be obtained from any board member of the P-TA.

Meadow Park P-TA Elects New Officers

Meadow Park P-TA held its regular meeting at which time the following people were elected to office: President, Mrs. William Poser; first vice-president, Mrs. James Anagnost; second vice-president, Mrs. Harold Turner; recording secretary, Mrs. David Nelson; corresponding, Mrs. Vera Larson; treasurer, Mrs. L. A. Barney; auditor, Pat McMannus; historian, Mrs. Bud Sorrenson. P-TA attendance award was won by Mrs. Lois Spielman's kindergarten class.

LAWN PARTY MARKS TWELFTH BIRTHDAY

A lawn party replete with green and yellow streamers marked the twelfth birthday party of Larry Baudin, son of the Roxy L. Baudins of 815 Portola avenue, formerly of Pennsylvania and Torrance residents of one month.

Making the party more special for Larry was the outdoor setting in March, so unlike Larry's former home in New Castle, Pennsylvania.

Attending the party was Larry's entire sixth grade class from Fern-Greenwood school. Special young guests were Lynne and Gary Stitzinger from Downey who were former neighbors and pals of Larry's in New Castle.

The group enjoyed games and dancing, and prizes were captured by Joey Austin, Judy Sherwood, Kenneth Mosley, Sharon Wilkins, Florine Custer, Virginia Davis, Bob Kyle, and Tom Neeley.

More lucky winners were Richard Cicero, David Cerio, Nancy Pogie, Elaine Baudin, Keith Custer, and Gary Scott.

Aiding Mrs. Baudin with party arrangements was Mrs. Bette Stitzinger of Downey.
