Woman Breaks Knee In Fall From Truck

Minor injuries received by Mrs. Ruby Harriett Lamphere of 1722 W. 236th st. when she fell out of her ice cream truck turned out to be not quite so minor as reported last week. Mrs. Lamphere received a badly broken right knee, injured hip, and body bruises, according to her husband, Bert Lamphere. Mrs. Lamphere swerved to avoid a car backing out of a parking lot on Western near 223rd st. Her ice cream truck continued on after she fell out and struck two parked vehicles.

Thelma Smith Wins Journalism Award

Thelma Smith, Torrance high school coed, received the first place award for feature writing from W. A. Kamrath, publications advisor of El Camino college. More than 90 students competed in the Writers' tour-

The Temple Menorah Steerhood executive board met last Tuesday evening, April 5, at the 265 Via Buena Ventura home of Mrs. Ben Wallace. Co-hostess was Mrs. Sydney Siegel.

ment recently at El Camino. Pat O'Gara, also of Torrance, was the third place winner in the editorial division.
