

Playcrafters To Present Easter Story

The McMaster Park Play-Crafters will present the "Easter Story" Friday night, April 8, at 8 p.m. in the Recreation building at 174th street and Yukon.

The four scenes to be presented are The Last Supper, Christ before Pilate, The Crucifixion, and The Ascension. The entire program will be carried out with the aid of puppets in the traditional manner. Every one is invited to attend this performance and see the results of another one of the programs initiated and carried on by the Torrance Recreation depart-

DELPHIAN SOCIETY TO MEET

Kappa Chapter of Delphian Society will meet at Torrance Library on Thursday, April 14 at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. J. S. Dresser will lead the discussion for the day with "Adaptation, Adjustment and Integration" as the topic for study. Assisting Mrs. Dresser as opening speaker will be Mesdames Paul Harestad, R. E. Beecher, W. F. Toombs, J. M. Stuart, and H. M. Davis.

The program will be repeated in the Torrance Park Band-Shell Easter Sunday afternoon beginning at 1 p.m.

Small Fry Frolic At Egg Scramble

Seen hopping from bush to bush last Saturday, April 2, in Torrance Park, was the Easter Bunny busily hiding eggs for the children of the Torrance Fireladies.

The small-fry scrambled at 10:30, competing to see who was the best little egg-hunter. Copping the prize for the wee group . . . ages 2 to 3 . . . was Eddie Katzorke; for the 4 to 6 age group was Jeffrey Wass; and tying for the 7 years and up group were Rodney Clarke and Jonatha Wass.

After receiving their prizes, the children all lined up and each received a basketful of candies and eggs. Sharp young appetites were then whetted with a luncheon and soft drinks, with coffee for the adults. The refreshments were all provided by the auxiliary.

In charge of the well-planned affair was Mrs. Gordon Clarke and Mrs. Ed Polston. Assistance was also given by Rodney Clarke and Mrs. Ruth Clarke.

Frank Gorbet Installed By Toastmasters

Frank C. Gorbet of 2156 W. 240th street was installed president of Torrance Toastmasters, Tuesday at a dinner meeting of the club.

Gorbet succeeds Gill Kyllingstad. Other officers installed were Kenneth McBreen, vice-president; Paul Fisher, secretary; Bob Hutchens, treasurer; and Harold Briggs, sergeant-at-arms. G. S. "Bill" Evans acted as toastmaster for the event.

CONTINUOUS VISION LENSES

Banish "Middle Distance Blur!"

Do you have difficulty in identifying merchandise labels on store shelves, distinguishing book titles in the library, reading large maps or blue-prints? You know of countless occasions where bifocals cause annoyance because they do not provide "middle distance" vision. Change to CONTINUOUS VISION lenses! Easier on the eyes than bifocals. They are not expensive; may be purchased on easy budget terms. Come in for a demonstration!
