

Girl Scouts Hold Court Of Awards

Girl Scouts of Troop 1391 recently held their court of awards in the education building of Grand View Methodist church, sponsor of the troop, with parents of all the girls as spectators.

The parents were entertained by several impromptu skits and three songs, "Girl Scouts Together," "Tell Me Why," and "The Golden Sun," following which the girls received their awards.

The affair was also the occasion of the first opportunity for the girls to wear their new junior high Girl Scout uniform, consisting of white blouse and forest green skirt, and beret, with a badge sash diagonally across the blouse. Stars, representing the number of years in scouting, were given to Doris Bryant, 4 stars; Linda Dapena, 4; Beverly Foat, 4; Marion Foat, 4; Marilyn Meyer, 4; Judy Winters, 4; Jo-Ann Hough, 4; Joanne Hebert, 3; Joan Scheck, 3; Margaret Flett, 2; Linda Garner, 2; Gwennette Smith, 2; Irene Valdez, 2; and Kathleen Kepperson, 1.

Proficiency badges for swimming were presented to Beverly Foat, Marion Foat, Margaret Flett, Linda Garner, Joanne Hebert, Marilyn Meyer, Gwennette Smith, Irene Valdez, Judy Winters, and Jo-Ann Hough. Proficiency cook badges were then awarded to Linda Dapena, Beverly Foat, Marion Foat, Marilyn Meyer, Judy Winters, and Jo-Ann Hough.

The entire troop was presented their second class badges by their leader Mrs. Frances Foat, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy St. Peter.

Cast Named For 'Five Pesos' Play

The Torrance Theater Guild has announced the cast for "Sunday Costs Five Pesos."

The lover, "Fidel," is played by Jeff Carr and Bud Pool. The girl, "Berta," is portrayed by Babs Whitley and Dorothy Dean. The rich girl and cause of trouble, "Celestina," is played by Dolores McColium and Diane Powers. "Salome," who fixes things up is played by Connie Stout and Tonia, another friend of "Berta," is played by Kathy Kirks.

The play is a hilarious comedy of small town Mexican folk, based on an old Mexican law that is still enforced in many of the small villages of the republic. No one knows the reason for its existence, but the phrase, "A woman who starts a fight on Sunday must pay a fine of five pesos," goes straight to the point. This sets the stage for an exciting time.

It promises to be a very entertaining play, so watch for the date of production.

P-T-A Council Delegates Meet At Turner Home

Torrance Council P-T-A delegates to the state convention at the Shrine auditorium in Los Angeles on May 4, 5 and 6 met at the home of Mrs. A. C. Turner, 1008 Acacia avenue, last Tuesday morning from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

The delegates, who will reside at the Bltmore hotel during the sessions, were presented with their convention material by Mrs. W. A. Wright, P-T-A Council president. A question and answer period followed the presentation.

High School Unit Names 9 To Conclave

Nine members of the Torrance high school P-TA were chosen during last Wednesday's meeting to attend the 33rd District convention to be held in Whittier today, April 21.

Those attending the convention today are Mrs. J. L. Hinds, president, and Mmes. L. M. Nash, Lee Flannagan, Clifford Easley, William Speck, F. W. Lane, J. R. Patrick, E. M. Whitcomb, and I. O. Kasten.

During Wednesday's meeting, the board voted a contribution to the American Field Service. It was also voted to change the next board meeting to April 29, and Mrs. Easley, after graduation party chairman, gave a report on her committee's progress.

The next regular meeting of the high school P-TA is scheduled for May 10. Mrs. J. R. Patrick is program chairman for the meeting.

'Vocations' Theme Of CDA Meeting

"Vocations" was the theme of the study club meeting held by Court St. Catherine last Monday night in Nativity parish hall, as high school girls and their mothers were invited to be special guests at the meeting.

In keeping with the theme, Sister Rosalla, principal of Nativity school, reviewed the book "Recruiting for Christ" by Godfrey Poage, C. P. Following the review, a question and answer period on vocations was conducted.

Participating at the meeting was Mrs. Frank A. Gately, grand regent of Court St. Catherine. Mrs. J. N. Dabbs, chairman of the study club, presided.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The president, reported on the conference of the western division of the 33rd District held in Hawthorne on April 16, which they attended. The conference was held for all secondary P-TA presidents a school administrator

Trio, IOOF To Sponsor Youth To UN

Six students from various high schools competed March 31, at the El Segundo IOOF hall, in a speaking contest for the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth, to determine the winner for the coveted trip to the United Nations in New York City.

Miss Donna Reekers of Narbonne high school was second alternate and other speakers were Bob Jacobs of Compton high school, Miss Jo Ann Mitchell of Hawthorne high school, and Rose Levine of Redondo Beach high school. The contestants spoke on "Why I would like to see the United Nations in Action."

The United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth is sponsored by the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Association of the Rebekah assemblies. The purpose is to promote better understanding between school and P-TA, and to exchange ideas.

P-TA Board To Meet in Dickson Home

The home of Mrs. William Dickson, 1849 Middlebrook road, will be the scene of the monthly board meeting of Howard Wood school Parent Teacher Association on Friday, April 22, at 9:30 a.m.

Mrs. Lee Polick, president, will receive reports from various chairmen including that of the carnival chairman, C. Hawley. May 7 is the date of the spring carnival, and many parents are working on details now.

This week, the children of Howard Wood school are sporting new white T shirts with the school name on them, said Mrs. Hawley, T shirt chairman. The shirt sale was termed very successful.

Mrs. Polick announced the delegates planning to attend the P-TA district meeting at Whittier. They are Mesdames Dana Houston, C. Hawley,

Grant Tidmarsh, William Dickson, M. D. Scoles and Polick, revealed by Robert Evans, principals. The association will meet at the school on April 28 will be date.
