

EC Team To Meet San Diego

El Camino's baseball team opens the second round of Metropolitan conference play when it takes the field against the flashy San Diego nine in a twin bill Friday, April 22.

Coach Doug Essick should have a well rested mound staff in these two clashes. Probable starters will be Jerry Tully and Joe Contestible, with Jerry Parker ready to help if trouble develops.

Coach Essick is very pleased with the improvement of the club as it went up to the semifinals of the Azusa baseball tournament held during the Easter vacation. The Warriors won three straight before being dropped by the Renegades from Bakersfield who eventually won the tourney.

Highlight
The big highlight at Azusa was the pitching staff which allowed the opposition only one run per game in the first three battles. After George Bishara put down the Ventura Pirates 5 to 1, Jerry Tully and Gary Marks then combined their talents with a berserk-happy hitting Camino squad to overwhelm Palo Verde 23 to 1. The next day big Marks came back without Tully, but the same hitting nine behind him to whip El Centro 17 to 1.

MEN WANTED TO GUARD OUR LIVES ...AND HOMES!

Young men, you are urgently needed to help protect our national security!

The Guard protects lives and property in local disaster... It provides trained units to join our regular forces in time of national emergency. The security of our nation demands a fully-manned National Guard.

The need is so great that men who volunteer to serve their country by enlisting in the National Guard between the ages of 17-18½ will be deferred from active military duty so long as they continue to serve satisfactorily—unless, of course, their Guard unit is called in-time of national emergency.

You'll have the satisfaction of serving your country and community as a citizen-soldier. And you can enlist in the unit of your choice. What's more, you'll benefit from the many advantages and opportunities open to you as a member of your hometown National Guard unit.

TOP TRAINING started near home while still in school or business. Useful military skills learned from experienced veterans.

EXTRA INCOME from the time spent in training. Qualify for valuable retirement pay.

SPORTS AND RECREATION FACILITIES are available in National Guard installations to Guardsmen, their families and friends.

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES qualify you for better paying civilian jobs. Attend regular Army schools with pay or take correspondence courses.

ADVANCEMENT AND PROMOTION as high as your interest, ability, and experience will take you. You may qualify for an officer's commission or an appointment to West Point.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING prepares you to give orders and direct others. Develop those qualities that make you a better man and a leader in your community.

Bridge Lessons Announced

Under the auspices of the Torrance Woman's Club, bridge lessons using the Gorem point system begin today, Thursday, April 21, in the clubhouse at 1422 Engracia avenue.

The series of ten sessions will be held every Thursday morning beginning at 9:30 a.m., with a mid-morning coffee break followed by supervised play. Instructor for the course is Mrs. Helen Mangold, bridge instructor from the Pacific Coast Club.

For further information those interested may call Mrs. R. J. Prout at FA 8-7257, or Mrs. John Oursler at FR 5-5386.

The ten lessons will cover (1) opening bids; (2) responsive raises; (3) other responses to opening bids; (4) opening "no trump" bids; (5) rebids by opener; (6) defensive bids; (7) preemptive bids; (8) suit bid of two; (9) slam bidding; and (10) leads and signals.

El Camino Pow Wow Sets Hawaiian Theme

Leis, muu muus, aloha shirts, and straw hats will be much in evidence on April 23 as Faculty wives of El Camino College sponsor their eighth annual Pow Wow.

Comprising the 300 persons anticipated to attend will be members of the faculty, college employees, and their guests. Setting for the annual gathering will be the College Campus Center, transformed into an island paradise.

Rams Football Film Set At B'nai B'rith

Film Highlights of the 1954 Rams football games will be on the program of the South Bay Area B'nai B'rith tonight, Thursday, April 21, at 8:30 p.m. Present to talk about the Rams will be Tom Fears, star back of the team, who will answer any questions pertaining to football.

The meeting, to be held at 112½ No. Catalina avenue, Redondo Beach, is open to the public. Non-members interested in attending may contact Bernard Yeskin at FA 8-4883 for further information.

Further such sporting events are planned for presentation during the coming months, with films of the 1954 World Series scheduled for one of the meeting dates during the summer months.

An Italian buffet dinner will be the feature of the May meeting. This is an invitational affair which will serve as the kick-off feature of the South Bay B'nai B'rith Lodge's membership drive. Any adult male of the Jewish faith wishing to attend this dinner as a guest of the lodge may receive an invitation by phoning the number listed above.

Softball Managers To Meet

An organizational meeting of Slow Pitch softball managers will be held at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, April 21, in the Torrance Recreation office, 1347 El Prado. Managers of last year's teams, and also any managers of new teams, are urged to attend.

The primary reason for the meeting is to organize this year's teams. The meeting is also being held to discuss last year's rules and any changes that the managers feel should be made.

REWARD FOR SAFE DRIVERS

If you are a safe driver, you can now buy your auto insurance for less; your good driving record entitles you to sound protection at lower cost.

You qualify for savings—right now—if, during a 12-month experience period, you and members of your family who drive your car (1) have not been involved in an accident or loss and (2) have not been convicted of violating a traffic law (other than a parking regulation).

Call us for details of our AUTO MERIT PLAN today. No obligation.

Openings in Night School Classes Told

Immediate openings now exist in several evening classes presented by Torrance evening high school. Persons interested in enrolling in business classes including typing and office practice, may do so by registering with the instructor in Room 205, Torrance high school, Monday through Thursday evenings from 6 to 9 p.m.

Scouts Enjoy Overnite and Cookout

Girl Scouts of Troops 1391 and 666 recently hiked to Camp Archie Shields for an overnight and cookout. They were accompanied by leaders, Frances Foat, Dorothy St. Peter, Eve Williams, and Marie Christiansen, with Lynell Carter, San Pedro Girl Scout Association chairman, as special overnight guest.

The following morning, most of the girls hiked to the Glass Church for an inspirational moment, "The Scouts' Own." They were accompanied by Mrs. Foat and Mrs. St. Peter.

Tanned, tired and happy, the girls are already planning another such affair. Those making the trip consist of Troop 1391—Doris Bryant, Linda Dapena, Margaret Flett, Beverly Foat, Marion Foat, Linda Garner, Joanne Hebert, Joan Scheck, Marilyn Meyer, Gwenette Smith, Irene Valdez, Judy Winters, and Kathleen Kehner-son.

Troop 666—Marge Williams, Sandra Cukrov, Karen Fricke, Phyllis Burkhalter, Jacquelyn Duzer, Estelle Hodgson, Lynette Johns, Charlene Parlick, Sandra Petrone, Nancy Ney, TomieLee Shaw, Dian Scott, Nancy Whitford and Marcheta Wideman.

English for the foreign born instruction is available on Mondays and Wednesday evenings, 7 to 9 p.m., Room 111.

Persons wishing to improve their speaking ability and learn confidence and poise in addressing a group or conducting meetings, are urged to enroll in the public speaking class held on Monday evenings from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

Beginning and advanced Spanish conversation classes are held on Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

Conducted for persons who wish to learn watercolor and oil painting for profit or pleasure, the art class held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 10 p.m., now has a few openings.

Persons in the North Torrance area may now enroll in the woodshop class held on Monday evenings at North Torrance elementary school, 17220 Casimir street, from 7 to 10 p.m.

Further information on these and other adult day and evening classes may be obtained by calling the Adult Education office, 2200 West Carson Street, FA 8-2272.

Meetings Planned By C of C

Tentative dates for the Torrance Chamber of Commerce's "Blueprint for Action," a polo-planning program, have been announced by Tom Watson, Chamber manager.

The series of meetings will be held as follows: Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, May 3 to 5 with meetings at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday, and 10 a.m., 3 p.m. and 7 p.m. Wednesday.

The following week additional meetings will be held in the outlying areas.

Place of meetings will still be announced.

May 2 Set For League Play Here

May 2 was set as the opening date of the softball league of play by representatives of six local teams when they met last week, according to "Red" Moon, athletic director.

Three rounds of play were agreed upon and all games were scheduled for Monday and Wednesday evenings on Torrance park ball field.

Wednesday, April 27, beginning at 7 p.m., each will be scheduled to play for a one-hour period during an umpire's field training course.

The course is being conducted that evening under the joint sponsorship of Los Angeles City Harbor District and Torrance City Recreation Departments, at Torrance park.
