Air Force Announces New Policy

Headquarters of the 609th United States Air Force Recruiting Detachment announced today that the "Lid was off" as far as original enlistments in the Air Force was concerned.

The new policy of "Ceiling Unlimited" is now the order of the day. Any prior restrictions concerning enlistments in the Air Force have now been rescinded. The Air Force will now enlist non-prior or original enlistees without regard to previous ceilings.

Prior service men have also fallen into the same category and can also be enlisted regardless of quotas. All prior service men no matter from what branch of service they were last discharged from may now apply for reenlistment in the United States Air Force. All interested parties are invited to contract Sgt. C. T. McFadden, located at Room 1, the Torrance post office, Marcelina near Cravens, or phone FA. 8-4495, between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m., Mondays through Fridays.

ONE-ACT PLAYS HONORED

Rosemary De Camp (Shidler), noted screen, radio, and TV celebrity, presented "Rosemary DeCamp Playwright Awards" to the three winning authors of the one-act plays presented Friday at Torrance high school.

Recipients of the awards were Tom Quaggin for "Perfect 36"; Bud Pool for "With Joy Comes Light"; and Jeff Carry for "Pick Up and Cut Out."

Receiving a special award for the outstanding actor was Eddie Shaw, who played Nero in "Pick Up and Cut Out."

The Meadow Park school orchestra entertained P.T.A. members at the April meeting. The orchestra is under the direction of Jerry Andrews.
