Suspects Caught Minutes After Liquor Store Robbery

Two robbery suspects who held up a Waleria liquor store at the point of a gun Tuesday night, were caught in their get-away car a half-hour later through the swift and alert action of three police departments.

In custody at the Torrance Police Department on suspicion of armed robbery are Gene Ellison, 24, of 12109 Watson avenue, Compton, and Otto Friedli, 23, of 11622 Nova street, Whittier.

Victim of the hold-up was Grant S. Stickney of 24241 Ward street, according to Det. Capt. Ernie Ashton.

After the two suspects took off with $75 at the liquor store at 10:25 p.m., Stickney called Torrance Police. Officers Wright, Crow, Fisher, and Daly responded to the call.

A description of the suspects was broadcast immediately and L. A. police and Lennox sheriffs were alerted.

The suspects were caught at Western and 190th street by L. A. P. D. Officers John J. Baustian and Virgel E. Melson.

Arrest was made possible through a detailed description of the vehicle and suspects provided by three witnesses who saw the get-away car and suspects, although they were not present at the time of the robbery.

MAN FOUND DEAD IN CAR

Termed apparent suicide, Edwin A. Burgdorf, 37, of 1608 Plaza del Amo, was found dead in his car shortly after noon Thursday, April 28.

The car was parked one mile northwest of Highgrade and Crest road, Rolling Hills, according to Lennox sheriffs.

Witnesses were Joe L. Miramoneos, 25, of Manhattan Beach and Naoma Estrada, 16, and Rachel Estrada, 17, of Redondo Beach.

Friedli fired one shot into the ground as he left the scene, according to Ashton. The two men stated that they were desperate for money as a motive for their action.

They were both unemployed. Ellison is married and has a 4-months-old son.

J. Bryan Donner direct descendant of one of the few survivors of the historic and ill-fated Donner Party, appeared on the program of the Lomita Community church last Sunday, May 1.
