'Two-to-One for Acquittal' Verdict at Courtroom Drama

Two verdicts of acquittal and one of conviction have been brought in by blue-ribbon Torrance juries at performances of "Night of January 16th," courtroom drama by Ayn Rand now playing at the YWCA here. ACCENT: Theatre! opened this play-with-two-endings to an enthusiastic first-night audience last Thursday and has been applauded for the professional way in which the former Broadway hit is being handled.

Murder Trial
The 3-act courtroom drama revolves around the trial of the glamorous Karen Andre, who is accused of murdering her boss phreys, box-office manager and on the night of January 16.

According to Marion Hum-trepreneur of the organization, drawn into the tense situation as they act as jury in the verdict of whether Faulkner jumped or was pushed out of the fabulous New York skyscraper, the Faulkner Tower, and lover, tycoon Bjorn Faulkner, multi-millionaire Swedish match king. The audience is match king. Some tickets are left for tonight, and "turn-ins" may have some chance at the door for tickets Friday and Saturday. However, full houses seem to be the prospect, he said.

Because of the overwhelming

ANTHONY'S ADVENTURES

Hi there! Tomorrow is Friday the 13th and some people say this means bad luck. But don't you believe it—cause tomorrow is opening day at Hollypark, and the jockeys who bring in winners and the people who bet on them will tell you it's a lucky day. Of course there's a way to be a winner tomorrow without risking anything. Just talk your husband into bringing home a delicious Italian meal from our place. If you don't have to cook and yet can serve your family a home-cooked meal—well that makes Friday the 13th your lucky day, doesn't it?

My little sister, Merla Ann, was christened Sunday, and we had a party afterward. That's why we didn't open 'til almost five. But anyway at the party we had some real good imported Vin Rosa and Chianti wines. Daddy got them at Mr. Ford's Liquor Store over next to the Shell Station. That's catty-cornered from our place.

Daddy wants me to tell you about our new schedule. He worked it out in hopes of satisfying the needs of our customers—and also because he's afraid mommy and he aren't going to be able to stand the present grind. We're going to be open mornings from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., and then we'll be closed 'til 4:30 p.m. Then we'll open from 4:30 p.m. to 11 p.m. On Fridays and Saturdays we'll be open 'til 1 a.m. And on Saturdays and Sundays we won't take the 2 to 4:30 siesta—just weekdays. I sure hope this works out so I get to see daddy and mommy a little more.

We've got salad dressing for sale in bulk now. The very same we use on the salads we serve. We have two kinds, Blue Cheese dressing and Italian dressing. Give them a try. See you next week—bye-bye.
