Each team in the five-man circuit has now won at least one game.

Paul Moser went the route on the mound for the Legion, giving up eight walks, 11 hits, and striking out three.

Hugh Dooley tossed the first five innings for the winners, giving up but two walks and five hits.

George Jones relieved Dooley in the last two frames, striking out four and giving up one free pass and was nicked for four runs on one hit, total of seven misdeeds occurring while he was pitching.

Opposing third basemen were the game's hitting stars, Larry Swink garnering three singles in four tries for the winners, and Gordie Smith, a single and double in three official trips to the plate.

The winners were guilty of five bobbles in the field.

Walteria Wins

In the second game, the Walteria nine picked up nine runs in a big third inning rally to sew up their contest with Pittsburg. Ray Hester, losing hurler, had tough going, five walks, four hits, and four errors doing all the damage to his team.
