

HEY, FLAP THAT JACK . . . Hope and Arnold Robles of Hawthorne wait patiently while Food Giant Supervisor Glenn Butler practices flipping flapjacks for the Food Giant's Annual 10c Charity Breakfast, to be held at the market, 423 S. Hawthorne boulevard, Saturday, June 4 at 9 a.m. The public is invited.

Dime Breakfast at Food Giant Saturday

Did you say ten cents? Yes, we said ten cents. That's the cost of a meal at the Annual Food Giant Charity Breakfast which takes place at the Food Giant market, 423 S. Hawthorne boulevard, Hawthorne, Saturday, June 4, 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

TORRANCE BOYS CITED AT BROWN

Two Torrance youths have won recognition at the Brown Military Academy of San Diego, they are Howard C. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Nelson of 1804 Marionette avenue, and Cadel Lt. Earl C. Welliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Welliver of 22327 Shadycroft avenue, Torrance.

Young Welliver has risen to the highest position in the cadet battalion, and will be graduated from the junior college this June.

Nelson is a member of the June graduating class of the military academy, and is finishing with the grade of Captain in the ROTC unit. He has won letters in football, baseball, and track, and is a member of the Lettermen's Club, Spanish Club, Officers' Club, and the Christian Club, being an officer of the latter organization. Nelson also won first place in the Sabre Drill in 1954.

Following graduation he will return to Brown in the fall to enter the junior college department.

National Guard Receives $300

Torrance's National Guard unit was granted a $300 appropriation by the City Council last week.

The money will be used to cover necessary expenses not provided for by State funds.

The public is invited to attend and as usual will be asked to make a ten cent donation before partaking of the breakfast. All money collected will go to further the work of local organizations engaged in youth activities.

The breakfast menu will consist of Minute Maid orange juice, Pillsbury pancakes, Edgemar eggs, Bud syrup, Challenge butter, Folgers coffee, Cubisons toast. Thirty persons from local youth organizations will be on hand to act as hosts and to welcome guests.

According to Curt Long, Food Giant manager, 3000 tickets have already been sold by participating groups. Long said that every effort will be made to serve the breakfast piping hot. Tickets will be available at the market on Saturday morning.

This will be the third annual charity breakfast that the Food Giant market has sponsored.

Summer School Plans Complete

Plans have been completed at each building for the summer session in the Torrance Unified School District. Approximately 80 classes will open on June 27 and will be maintained for six weeks, ending on August 5.

Any child who has attended one of the Torrance schools during the past year is eligible to enroll.

At the High School the offerings will consist of Social Studies, English, Science, General Math, Algebra, Geometry, Typing and Shorthand.

All of the regular subjects taught during the school year will be included in the elementary schools.

ENTERTAINS: Bozo, the clown, will be on hand tomorrow, Saturday, and Sunday at Twin Pontiac, new automobile agency at 505 Pacific Coast highway, Hermosa Beach, to entertain at the grand opening celebration. Other personalities present at the "Carnival of Values" will be Gordon Grey, Richard Boone, Mary Beth Hughes, and bands of Eddie Cleto and Jimmie Widener with Tex Atchison, Alibi Terhune, and Elmer. New agency is owned by twins, Richard and Robert Greenwald.
