Mrs. M.'s 'Wanderlust' Poses Duck Problem

Mrs. Murphy and the Kellys have parted company again... that is, Mrs. Murphy walked out, and the Kellys can presume only one reason... family trouble!

The lady who left home without giving a reason happens to be a year-old mallard duck, a pet of Carol Kelly, who keeps a menage consisting of Mrs. Murphy, a dog named Suzie Q, and two cats, Fluffy and Princess, at the home of the F. J. Kellys, 1633 Hickory.

Whether the recent acquisition of the two cats, or the call of romance, has caused Mrs. Murphy to leave home twice within the past few days, Carol and her family believe the little brown and blue duck may have decided home was too hectic a place for a nest of her own.

As a matter of fact, Mrs. Murphy may have gone next door to visit her brother, also a mallard, or she may have been attracted to a handsome white drake who lives about a block away.

After a three-day absence, she reappeared for one night (perhaps to see what Carol was wearing in a Girl Scout fashion show) and the next morning she was again missing.

The dog, Suzie Q, misses Mrs. Murphy as the two joined the Kelly household about the same time. The cats, however, are enjoying their respite from Mrs. Murphy's sharp-tongued attacks.

OSCAR MAPLES BUYER OF THE WEEK

"IT'S A F-O-O-O-R-D" say Nick Drale and Vel Miletich, as Drale drives off in his new Country Sedan Ford Station Wagon bought at Oscar Maples. Vel is president of the local Ford agency.

If You Need A New Car Or You're Bored Do What The Drale's Did - Buy A F-o-o-o-rd!

"My wife, Fran, always wanted a Ford!" But Nick Drale, new owner of a 1955 Country Sedan Ford station wagon, was himself all smiles as he drove his stunning blue and white automobile away from Oscar Maples, Torrance Ford agency, 1420 Cabrillo ave., Friday.

The Drales, who live at 3319 W. 171st st., are as thrilled with their new car as a boy is with his new bicycle on Christmas day.

"It's got everything," Drale beamed. "Power brakes, power steering, all metal, Power-Pack motor, heavy base air-foam rubber in every seat, radio, heater—EVERYTHING!"

"It's certainly true that you can get the best deal right here at home. We shopped around first at other dealers but we found that we got our best bargain at Oscar Maples," Drale said. "Besides, I know that my car will be serviced properly and conveniently here in Torrance by Oscar Maples and that's worth money to me."

Councilman

Drale, presently a member of the Torrance City Council, is now serving his second term. He was mayor from 1954 to 1955.

Not until 1948, shortly before he was elected to his first term in office, did he ever think of entering politics.

"Now it's in my blood," Drale chuckled in his genial way. "I still like it. However, I haven't decided whether I will run again for re-election next year."

Here Since 1933

The Drales came to Torrance in 1933 from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Drale went to work for Columbia-Geneva Steel here. At present he is on a year's leave of absence from the firm.

The Drales have three children. Michael, 16, their oldest son, is a sophomore at Torrance high school. He is an active member of De Molay.

Next in line is Stephen, 10, a fourth grader at Carr elementary school. He is a proud player for Clancy's Minors on the Little League farm team.

His sister, Patty, 9, also goes to Carr where she is in the third grade.

Drale, who is known to one and all alike as "Nick," is a member of the Masons, Shriner's, Moose, Elks, and CIO Steelworkers Local 1414.

The large family doesn't pose any problems at all anymore—now that the Drales have a spanking-new Country Sedan Ford station wagon... from Oscar Maples, of course!
