

Preview of Play Set for Meeting of Theatre Group

Sneak preview of a one-act play to be presented in the Pacific Coast Drama Tournament in Santa Monica soon will be the main attraction at a business meeting of ACCENT Theatre tomorrow night at 8 p.m. at the Torrance Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia.

Principals Named
Featured in "The Parade at the Devil's Bridge," a masque by Henri Gheon, are Dora Heinlein, property; Hank Heinlein, Father Kado; Muriel Carlyle, his cat; Ed Cantle, the Devil; Kenneth Carlyle, a Breton fisherman; and Lola Kelley, a young maiden. Jack Hudson is director while Eileen Pulliam is in charge of script and props. Marion and Carol Davis did set design, and Ana Norris and Dora Heinlein executed costumes of an indefinite Renaissance period. Others on the staff of this production are B. J. Wilhelm, Betty Kissler, Kenneth Lawless, and Ann Humphreys.

First Meeting at Clubhouse
The general meeting is the first to be held at the Torrance Woman's club, which will be the scene of ACCENT Theatre activity for two evenings a week during the summer months, and for the run of "Fourposter" June 24, 25, and 26. During the meeting there will be distributed "Night of January 16th" cast pictures, and the latest edition of Entertainment News, and coming productions will be discussed.

The meeting is open to the public, and all members of the association are urged to be

Blood Bank To Be Here On June 13

The Torrance Branch of American National Red Cross will again hold a blood bank at the Torrance Civic Auditorium on Monday, June 13 from 3 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Blood program chairman Mrs. Gordon Jones this week is contacting all previous blood groups with the assistance of co-chairmen Mrs. William Cochran and Mrs. David McMillan. Individuals will also be contacted by telephone during next week, and all other interested persons who wish to donate their blood are urged to contact the local office, FA. 8-0510. Other telephone numbers to call are FA. 8-1597 and DA. 6-1617.

Donating blood establishes credit for the donors and their families should they have future need of blood.

Recent ruling from the National Institute of Health in Washington, D. C., makes it imperative that more donors are needed.

Community Fair Ticket Campaign Under Way

Tickets to the Torrance Community Fair and Rodeo went on sale at a kick-off meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsoring organization, Tuesday night at the Chamber of Commerce building.

Receiving tickets were the six current queen candidates, Miss Frances Frisina, Exchange club; Miss Carolyn Duncan, Loyal Order of the Moose and attorney of Torrance; Miss Mitzi Trimiew, JayCettes; Miss Betty Morris, Elks; Mrs. Norma Prange, North Torrance Civic Improvement association; and Miss Darlene Forrer, Torrance Fire department and Fire Department auxiliary.

Newest Entry
Miss Forrer, most recent candidate for the five hundred-dollar grand prize to be given the girl, who, with the aid of her backers, sells the most tickets, is a professional dancer.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raimund Forrer of 24224 Los Codona, she spent three years with the U.S.O. after being graduated from Torrance High school, danced with the Sadler-Wells Ballet, and toured with Horace Heidt. She now teaches dancing locally.

Mrs. Ed Polston of the Fire Department auxiliary is in charge of Miss Forrer's campaign.

Weekly Chart
At the meeting it was announced the girls would check in each Monday night at 7:30 to mark their progress. Also, display booths for the main tent will go on sale soon, according to Jim Wood, chairman of that division.

"Locations will go fast," Wood said, "as there has been more interest evidenced this year already than there was at
