

Hawaiian Theme Keynotes Council P-TA Installation

Using a Hawaiian theme, Mrs. Laurence B. Martin, California State P-TA magazine chairman, and Tenth District public welfare director, installed the new officers of the Gardena-Wilmington Council P-TA. Eighteen presidents from the local P-TA's and two principals representing the teachers were also installed, at a luncheon meeting held Friday, May 27, at the Western Cafe.

Presented With Leis
As each officer assumed her position she was presented with a beautiful Hawaiian lei, which represented a certain flower that symbolized the challenge that each position held.

Taking their places as they were "launched on their voyage" were Mesdames W. L. Blacker, president; C. Newell Peterson, first vice-president; Robert Snyder, second vice-president; Harold Perkins, secretary; Charles Rotman, treasurer; A. B. Pond, auditor; Harry Peterson, historian; and Michael Foxhoven, parliamentarian.

"We Believe in Make-Believe," was the theme of the general session, with the council and each school within the council, employing a nursery rhyme or fairy tale as their table decor.

Interest centered on the Council table featuring "Jack and the bean-stalk." Golden Egg Main Attraction The goose that laid the golden egg being the center of attention. The "Golden Egg," when presented to Mrs. Laurence B. Martin, and Mrs. Francis B. Wood, manager of child welfare for Tenth District, revealed $592.81 in checks, from the Gardena-Wilmington Council and its 18 units as their gift towards the Tenth District's feeding program.

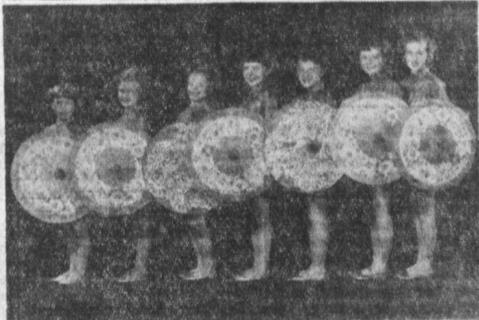

Among those present as council guests were Mrs. Laurence B. Martin, director of public welfare for Tenth District; Mrs. Lawrence Lobach, historian for Tenth District; Mrs. D. W. TenEyck, president of Gateway Council; president of Lomita-San Pedro Council, Mrs. C. L. Wilson, and president-elect Mrs. George Weeks.

Guest principals present included Mrs. M. Q. Wallace, Carson Street; Carl Carter, Delores Street; Guy Holliday, 156th Street; Mrs. Mildred Fletcher, 186th Street; and Mrs. Ethel Bromley, 232nd Place.

Health Film Slated Today

The story of a young couple expecting their first child will be told in the film "Labor and Childbirth" which has been booked for the Expectant Mothers' Class, Thursday, June 2 at 1 p.m., in the Torrance Health Center, 2300 Carson Street, according to Dr. B. A. Kogan, District Health Officer for the County Health Department.

The film shows preparations for the trip to the hospital, identification of delivery room equipment and delivery of the baby.

Garden Club Hears About Perennials

A demonstration and informative talk on perennials by Kenneth Terry highlighted the regular meeting of the Torrance Terrace Garden club held at the home of Mrs. H. C. Sandberg, 2444 Los Codona avenue, Welteria. The program was arranged by Mrs. Minot C. Rugg. During the business meeting which followed the dessert luncheon, final matters pertaining to the Torrance Hobby, Art & Flower Show were disposed of. Discussion also centered around the club's entry of a shadow box arrangement in the Lomita Flower shop this weekend at Lomita Park. Individual members of the club will also enter displays in this show.

Future plans include a trip to Huntington Library in Pasadena, on June 22, with the group meeting for lunch en route. Door prizes at the meeting went to Mesdames J. Parke Montague and Dewey Quigley. The next meeting will be a potluck luncheon on June 8 at the 1008, Acacia avenue home of Mrs. A. C. Turner.

To Exhibit At Lomita

Plans were made by the Greentumbers Garden Club of Allied Gardens to enter an exhibit in the Lomita Flower Show being held June 4 and 5. Other plans are being arranged for a bake sale and a plant exchange.

It was reported the Coffee Clatch that was held was so successful, the club voted to have one every Friday at 10 a.m. The last Coffee Clatch was held at the home of Mrs. Peter Zeimet on May 27, with a book sale as the main event, the books being donated by Mrs. Zeimet. The Coffee Clatch of June 3 will include a plant sale at the home of Mrs. John Fitzgerald, plants being donated by the members.

The next meeting will be a pot luck dinner at the home of Mrs. Peter Zeimet on June 15. The Greentumbers Garden Club held their last regular meeting, Wednesday, May 18 at the home of Mrs. Maude Vulgamott. Fifteen members and one guest, Mrs. Cyril Sargent, were present. A planter was presented to Mrs. Eldon Sellmeyer as a going away gift.

Anyone in this area who is interested in the garden club may contact Mrs. Howard Elliott—FR. 5-8669.

Eta Kappa Meets At Dorsey Home

The newly chartered Torrance chapter Eta Kappa of Epsilon Sigma Alpha international sorority, held its second meeting at the home of Mrs. Helen Dorsey, 2014 West 165th street, last week.

Plans for summer socials highlighted the meeting, with a beach party in early July the first affair planned.

President of the new chapter is Mrs. Audrey Herring. Other officers are Mesdames Florence Pfeiffer, treasurer; Winifred Giamio, secretary; Shirley Phillips, educational chairman; and Helen Leichtweiss, corresponding secretary.

Chapter advisor is Mrs. Winona Jackson of the Epsilon Sigma chapter.

'HOUSING' TOPIC OF MEETING

"Housing" will be the subject of tonight's (Thursday, June 2) meeting of the Torrance Coordinating Council, as the group

Bargains Set For Nativity Rummage Sale

Bargains in everything from blue jeans to fur coats; coffee will gather at the Greenwood school at 7:30 p.m. Program chairman for the meeting is Mrs. Juanita Cable.

Featured on the program will be Rev. Schneider who will speak on "The Dignity of Man," and Sam Sheats whose topic will be "The FHA in Court."

Local organizations and individuals interested in civic betterment and youth welfare are invited to attend the session.

Electric washing machines, will be offered to the shoppers who attend the Altar Society rummage sale to be held in Nativity Catholic Hall, 1420 Cota avenue, on Friday and Saturday, June 3 and 4.

The hall will be open from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. both days of the sale, and the ladies of the Society are busily arranging the merchandise in department store style, making it unnecessary to rummage for bargains.

The chairman of this affair has announced that this sale promises to surpass all previous sales held by the group. The hall will be open every day this week from noon to 5 p.m., and from 7 to 9 p.m. for deliveries. Pick-up service may be arranged by calling Mrs. Celina Dean, FA. 8-3679, or the Rectory at FA. 8-2776.

president; and Harold Perkins, secretary. Back row are Guy Holliday, principal representative; Mmes. Charles Rotman, treasurer; Michael Foxhoven, parliamentarian; Harry Peterson, historian; A. B. Pond, auditor; and Evalyn Sullivan, principal representative.
