LINE OFFICERS PARTY HELD BY LOCAL OES

Torrance Chapter held its Line Officers Advance Party recently at Torrance Masonic Temple, Torrance. Hostesses for the conductress and associate conductress entered led by the honorary Marshals Homer Morgan, past patron of Torrance, and Fred Cain, associate patron of Wilmington. Bible bearers were Edna Babcock, Garnett Satterfield and Mildred Edwards, all past matrons of Torrance.

Officers Escorted
The line officers of Torrance chapter were escorted into the chapter room, and Dorothy and Edward were invited to the East, the other officers advancing one station. Scouts Complete Grooming Course With Fashion Show

Climaxing the completion of their work on the Girl Scout Good Grooming Badge, the girls of Scout Troop 538 held a fashion show last Thursday (May 26) evening in the Fern avenue cafeterium.

The troop, sponsored by the Fern-Greenwood school, had worked on the badge for ten weeks. During that time the girls were coached and heard lectures by several experts. Coaches
Among those counseling the troop on health and grooming were Dr. Redish, chiropodist; Dr. Chen, dentist; Marjorie Snow, hair and nails; Priscilla Thornberry, modeling and posture; and Mrs. F. J. Kelly, troop leader, on dietetics. Modeling fashions from Neta's Tots and Teens were scouts and their sisters, Marylou and Jenny Tompkins, Sheila and Nora Thornberry; Patsy and Donna Cochran, Judy and Bonnie Hogan, Charlene and Toni White, Dee Dee Cato, Deline Goode, Virginia Anderson, and Carol Jo Kelly.

Meadow Park P-T A Names New Officers

Mrs. William Poser, newly elected president of the Meadow Park P-T-A, presided at the final meeting of the unit held recently in the school auditorium. Other new officers installed at this meeting were Mmes. James Anagnost, vice-president; Harold Turner, 2nd vice-president; David Nelson, recording secretary; L. A. Barney, treasurer; and Messrs. Pat McMannus, auditor; and Bud Sorrenson, historian. "Let's Try to Understand Adolescence," was the topic of a panel discussion directed by Warren W. Hamilton, director of special services for Torrance Unified School District. Dale Wickstrom, eighth grade teacher, discussed with parents plans for the party for this year's graduating class. Popular vote of the students, he revealed, was an all-day beach party. Principal H. J. Ferris outlined procedures for enrolling in summer school classes, and also discussed the possibility of double sessions next year. He stressed the importance of the June 7 School Bond issue, which was further discussed by E. L. Adams. Refreshments provided by the 1st and 8th grade classes were served by Mrs. Jack Thomas, hospitality chairman. P-T-A members serving hot lunches to the teachers during the months of April and May were Mmes. Alfred Knopf, Van Wetering, G. H. Childs, Nancy Taylor, Betty Dunn, Marian Terry, Del Rodgers, Jean Marshall, Wm. Walters, and A. B. Scirotta.

School Hours On Last Day Announced

The school hours for pupils on June 17, the last day of the school year, have been shortened to enable teachers to complete records that are required before they leave for summer vacation. The hours in all of the buildings in the district will be as follows:
Elementary morning session pupils will report at 8 a.m. and will be dismissed at 9 a.m.
Elementary afternoon and all day session pupils will report at 9 a.m. and will be dismissed at 10 a.m.
High School afternoon session pupils will meet at 11:30 a.m. and will be dismissed at 2:30 p.m.
The school transportation facilities will follow a schedule to meet the above hours.
