Man Dissolves Business To Devote Life To Youth Work

A Torrance resident did something unusual this month—he dissolved his business in order to devote the rest of his life to working with youth.

Robert F. Evans, 40, of 5107 Sharynne lane, said that the move was motivated by "a deep desire to work with young people in the field of recreation and to help by counseling and guiding them with their problems."

BOB EVANS
... to help youngsters

Evans is strongly convinced that there is no such thing as a "bad" youngster.

"If children had a person to come to with their problems and if these problems could be handled on an individual basis, they could be solved before they had a chance to grow out of proportion and become serious and unmanageable, Evans feels.

Key Is Love

The key to this work is love, Evans said. The problems which young people have are extremely important to them and that must never be forgotten, Evans stated.

Evans is married and has three children, Bill, 15; Ronny, 14; and Barbara Jean, 8.

Until this month he was in business for himself, manufacturing aircraft parts and acting as a manufacturer's agent and distributor for marine, automotive and industrial equipment and supplies. He has been active in the Boy Scouts, working up to area commissioner and acting as an explorer adviser to Post 726.

Evans said. While he hopes to do this work on a professional basis, he is quick to point out that professional aspects must always remain secondary to the fundamental aim—to help the youngsters of this community.
