"THE VALIANT" . . . Finishing touches are all that remain as rehearsals for "The Valiant" to be presented here Saturday draw to a close. Above are Raymond Davis (left) who plays the warden, Terry Baker, who is cast as the priest, and Mary Braden, the feminine lead, in a scene from the play. The production is being presented by the Torrance Theater Guild on Saturday evening at the Torrance High School auditorium. Tickets will be available at the box office.

Griffey Electric To Open 'Til Midnight This Week

The doors of Griffey Electric Company's appliance store, at 212 S. Pacific ave., in Redondo Beach, will be open until midnight tonight, Friday and Saturday as a part of a celebration marking the store's tremendous growth.

Bob Hayes, owner-manager of Griffey Electric, said, "We are staging this open house sale, featuring sweeping reductions on hundreds of name brand items, as a 'thank you' to the residents of this area who have contributed so much to our growth."

"We hope that all our old friends and many new ones will drop in at the store during our open house," he added.

Free Balloons There will be free balloons for the children and refreshments served at the store during the next three days.

Griffey Electric has instituted a program of volume buying which will enable the firm to pass on even greater savings to its customers, Hayes said.

He emphasized that the store's slogan, "Sales With Service," will be more important than ever. A crew of 11 service department experts is available at all times to back up the Griffey guarantee, the owner stated.

Opened In '28 The store, opened originally in Redondo Beach in 1928, has grown to be one of the South Bay's largest retail appliance sales and service organizations. Virtually every well-known name in the appliance field can be found at the store.

Westinghouse, Motorola, RCA Victor, Zenith, Philco, Capehart, Tappan, Norge, Maytag and General Electric are but a few of the popular appliances on display now.

Over the years, Griffey Electric has twice moved into larger quarters, and is currently expanding its facilities to provide additional display area.

Staff In addition, the staff of sales and service personnel has expanded to meet the needs of the increased sales volume. Office personnel includes Elsie Hayes, Laura Martin, Helen Culkins and Ella Ewart.

Service manager Charlie

Strook is assisted by Mark Wesslough, Eugene Smith, Dick Thurn, Clarence Youngman, Mel Black, Grover Peck, Harold Christianson and Otis Bell.

In the sales department, Hayes is assisted by George Berger, Bill Leek, Iva Taylor and Chuck Berger.
