

Youngsters To Win Trip To Disneyland

The Disneyland tour, which is being sponsored by the May-fair Creamery and the city recreation department, is drawing nearer every day. The tour will be on August 24.

One boy and girl from each of the playgrounds will be awarded the chance to explore the wonders of Disneyland. The boy and girl in each playground area with the greatest number of points, gained from entering and winning the various tournaments staged each week will win the coveted award.

These tournaments are divided into three age groups, 7-9, 10-11, and 12-13.

Mike Scott, from El Retiro Park leads the boys with 103 points. Robin Sedar has 83 and Peggy McNonigle is in third place with 47 points.

The tour will begin from the Torrance recreation office, with all the winners on their way to an exciting day at the fabulous Disneyland.

Attending were 210 individuals who heard Frank Keleher of the 7-up Youth foundation address the group.

Vice President Don Whitney accepted the president's gavel, which was a gift from the members, on behalf of President Al Marzilli who was absent.

Harry Kissell, owner of the Little League land, informed the group that the field will be available again for 1956, according to Jim Whitmer, owner of the cafe.

Arlen Charter served as master of ceremonies while Bill Brooks presented a history of the year's activities.

LEGION IN 1st PLACE, DEFEAT OPTIMISTS

Last week's game results in the Torrance Recreation Department's Service club slo-pitch leagues put the Legion team alone in first place by virtue of their 8 to 3 conquest over Optimists at Waleria, Wednesday, July 20, and an 8 to 6 victory by the surprising Junior Chamber lads over the fast Lion's club ten.

In other contests, Rotary topped the Kiwanians 6 to 3 at Torrance Park, with Ed Raphael and Bob Leech each getting two hits in three trips for the winners, and Fred Briggs a home run for the losers.

Waleria Businessmen dropped a game to the California School Employees Ass'n, by forfeit, but took an 8 to 5 verdict in the exhibition contest, which followed the forfeiture.

A double forfeit marred Monday's Adult League schedule at Torrance park, Dow losing to the American Legion nine and Waleria Businessmen to Pittsburgh Paints.
