report on the progress of the new building was given. A committee for fund raising was appointed, and all members were asked to give their cooperation when called upon. A committee was nominated to draw up the slate of officers for the coming year, and the next meeting will have candidates appointed. Religious chairman Max Stern has announced that tickets for High Holiday Services will be available early in August. The services of Rabbi Moishe S. Amine have fortunately been secured for this year again. As plans are being made to hold the services this year in our new home, it will be a happy and joyous occasion for all. Many plans are being formulated to bring the Jewish community of Gardena, Torrance, Hawthorne, and surrounding areas into closer contact with each other.

Bible School Begins Here on August 8

The annual Vacation Bible school of the Calvary Community church will be held for two weeks from August 8 to 19, with classes scheduled for each week day from 9 to 11:30 a.m. and again from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

Children ages 4 to 12 will meet for the morning session, with young people over 12 set to meet in the evening, according to Ruth Hight, church secretary.

There will be handwork, lessons, games, singing and contests, Mrs. Hight said. Theme of the school is "Sailing With Christ."

The church is located at 1117 Milton street.

Methodist Church Slates Tea for Training School

On August 7, Church School teachers from the South Bay area will gather in the parlor of the First Methodist church of Torrance for a tea which is the first meeting of the Training School to be held August 7-12.

This school is under the sponsorship of the Board of Education of the Southern California-Arizona Conference of the Methodist church and is one of six held this summer.

The purpose of the school is to offer opportunity for training of Church School teachers and parents who want to become better teachers of religion.

The distinctive feature of the school is that teachers will observe outstanding leaders working with children, providing an opportunity to see methods put to work in actual church school environment.
