

Bar-None Set For Barbecue

Mrs. Henry Heinlein, president of ACCENT Theatre, has announced that "we all know that barbecues are usually held only after weddings and shootings and such like, but since there hasn't been a shooting of note around these parts for many a dry spell, we intend to have a real western shindig on Saturday, September 10, at the Bare None Ranch (formerly Heinlein's Hacienda) at 2208 Gramercy avenue."

There will be barbecued chicken and all that completes the menu. The serving will begin at 6 p.m.

It is open to the public and reservations may be made by calling FAirfax 8-6130.

All proceeds will go to finance the next production of ACCENT Theatre!

Hi-Jinx Talent Show Staged

The St. Catherine's court of Catholic Daughters took part in the annual Hi-Jinx show staged recently at Huntington park. The skit, which included singing and dancing, was under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Moore.

The cast included Mmes. Joseph Lucas, Harry Hamilton, William Healy, William Korchenko, E. K. Cunningham, Gerald Revell, Leroy Armstrong, and Frank Cavanaugh. The club will have a board meeting on Friday, September 9, at the home of Mrs. Leroy Armstrong, 1633 Juniper. Plans are being made for a fashion show to be held the last week in September.
