Ebbinghouse Appointed

Appointment of John A. Ebbinghouse, plant manager of American Rock Wool corp., as Community Chest campaign division chairman for commerce and industry in Torrance was announced this week by Mervin Schwab, commerce and industry chairman for the harbor area Red Feather appeal.

Aided by a committee of twelve Torrance businessmen, Ebbinghouse will solicit all industries in the city employing more than 10 and less than 200 people.

Kick-Off Date

Red Feather commerce and industry kickoff is slated for September 21, with an orientation meeting for all commerce and industry volunteer leadership in the harbor area at 2:30 p.m. at the Pacific Telephone company, San Pedro.

Host will be George Bradbeer, manager of Pacific Telephone in San Pedro and chairman of the Harbor Area Welfare Federation Board, and Dick Pyle, area vice-chairman for the Chest commerce and industry appeal, will preside. Speaker will be Frank Lord of the personnel department of Pacific Telephone.

Previous Post

Ebbinghouse, who lives at 4334 Ranch View Road, Rolling Hills, has aided in commerce and industry solicitation during four previous Chest campaigns, serving as a section chairman for the 1954-55 appeal. A director of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, he is also a member of the Torrance Rotary club and served as its president last year.

New Tract Opens Here

Lindenburg Realty announced the opening of a new tract, Felbar Terrace, at 190th and Felbar. A model home will be open to the public every afternoon from 1 p.m. until 6 p.m. A representative from Lindenburg Realty office will be on hand to guide the public thru the house and explain its features. Lindenburg stated that this group of twenty-four 3-bedroom homes feature every modern convenience including garbage disposals, glass patio doors, washing machines, painted walls, 40-gallon hot water heaters and front lawns.

'Eye Witness' T-Views Flag Pole Sitter

Hal Ingman, the celebrated "Chief High Trader" atop the Twin Pontiac 65-foot flagpole at 505 Pacific Coast Hwy., Hermosa Beach, hits the local TV with the Pontiac Twins. Richard and Robert Greenwald, when the "Eye Witness" TV show presents the initial ascent by Ingman.

The Twins will appear with an "I witnessed" version of the proceedings.

The show is seen locally on Channel 5 at 11 p.m.

Appearing on the show along with the Twins will be Ingman's wife, Eva, and two-week-old son, James Allen.

Eva is leaving for the show for Washington, with the newborn and the Ingman's other two children, to help her mother run a business.

"Things are getting tougher now that I've been up here 39 days but I think I'll be able to break the 196-day record," reported Ingman. "My biggest problem now seems to be that I'm always hungry, even though I eat three big meals a day and a lot of pastries in between meals."

Asked if he'd thought of quitting Ingman said, "YES, several times, but every time the thought crops up I just have to put it out of my mind." . . . Advertisement.

School Funds Source

The Torrance schools derive their support from 40.38% of district taxes, 2.22% of federal funds, 31% of county taxes, and 56.89% of state apportionments.
