

Garden Club Plans Dinner

The regular meeting of the Greenthumbers Garden club was held at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Horton, with Mrs. William Fitzgerald presiding, and fourteen members present.

A pot luck dinner was planned for Thursday, September 29. Each member wrote a question regarding plants and gardening. At each meeting a question will be drawn and discussed at the succeeding meeting.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, October 20, at the home of Mrs. Clarence Barrows. A luncheon was held at the home of Mrs. Howard Elliot by the following officers of the Greenthumbers Garden club: Mrs. William Fitzgerald, president; Mrs. Howard Elliot, vice-president; and Mrs. Martha Knight, secretary for Mrs. Ann Rice; and Mrs. Phyllis Cresney of the Beau Jardin Garden club. The topic of the day was a joint civic beautification project.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dean O'Connell of 2467 West 255th St., Lomita, announce the birth of a son, Thomas Dale, weighing 7 pounds and 10 ounces.

Kathy Hogan Sought For Acting Ability

Torrance has a promising child actress, Kathy Hogan, eight years old, who has, within one year, been sought out by the Children's Screen Actor's Guild for her charm and talent, and has appeared in two nation wide television shows and made numerous TV commercials.

Kathy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hogan, 1527 El Prado. Her parents are still slightly amazed by the sudden demand on their daughter's abilities.

Mrs. Hogan said, "She's a very fine swimmer, and I had expected her to follow through on that, but I never considered the possibility of a career in theatre for Kathy."

She Has Fun
Kathy is delighted with this form of fun, and still cannot regard it as a job. After filming "City Detective" with Rod Cameron on the Republic Studio lot and playing all day with the horses, she was very perplexed when her mother told her that people were paid for acting. She couldn't understand why anyone would be paid to have such a good time.

Watched Herself
Kathy saw herself on television for the first time on the Loretta Young show last Sunday. The program was filmed previously and Kathy had the exciting experience of sitting in her living room and watching herself on the screen. She played the part of a school girl on the show.

She is in the third grade at Nativity school and has been studying dancing and singing for three years. Mrs. Hogan has now enrolled her in a dramatics class on the advice of Kathy's agent, Lola Moore, of Hollywood, who said that the era of the singing and dancing child star is passing and now the studios concentrate on acting.

KATHY HOGAN

The next regular meeting will be Friday, October 21, at 8 p.m. at the American Legion Hall.

Weeks Return From Tour
Dr. and Mrs. George D. Weeks and their boys have returned home from a trip that took them through the Grand Teton National park, where they camped out; to Sun Valley, Idaho; to Lower Bridge, Oregon, which is Mrs. Weeks' home town; to Everett and Lynden, Washington, over to Vancouver, British Columbia, and back to Redmond, Oregon.

While in Redmond they attended the Buckaroo breakfast. Dr. George D. Weeks is the instructor of music at Narbonne High school.

Mrs. Weeks is president of the Lomita-San Pedro Council P.T.A.

Lomita Fuchsia Club Hears Plant Revitalization Lecture

Mrs. J. W. Jensen of Bellflower was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Lomita Fuchsia and Garden Society at the American Legion Hall, 24702 Narbonne ave.

She discussed the damage caused to plants by the recent heat wave. She advised trimming and fertilizing after new growth starts, and warned against cutting off brown fern fronds, because they store food for the next year's growth. "Overwatering during excessive warm weather is not good," she said, "water enough, but be careful."

Mrs. C. O. Eipper, president, announced that new board members are: Mrs. A. Elorriaga, librarian, Mrs. Jack McKinney, sunshine chairman, and Kermit Gluth, tickets and courtesy chairman.

Mrs. Joseph Gilpin led the group in community singing of old time favorites.

Mrs. John Slaughter served refreshments.

Festival Preview
A preview of items to be on sale at the Bargain Fall Festival, Friday, November 18, showed that many gifts will be available for Christmas shoppers.

The executive board will be guests of Mrs. Ed Shurgot, 2460 251st st. on Wednesday, October 19, at 7:30 p.m.

Walteria BPW Slates Sale
Walteria Business and Professional Women's club will sale the largest rummage sale in their history on Friday, September 23, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., and on Saturday, September 24, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the Isen building, 1609 Carbrillo.

Proceeds will go to aid in youth work and girl scout assistance in Walteria.

WALTERIA PTA PLANS SCHEDULE

The meeting of the Walteria P.T.A. board was held Thursday at the school.

The new vice-principal, Joe Brandon, was introduced to the board members.

The next paper drive will be held Wednesday, September 28. Miss Pat Clere, one of the teachers, is starting a Walteria P.T.A. mothersingers. They are planning to meet once a week. Miss Clere said, "Don't feel you have to be a talented singer to come, all you have to do is enjoy singing."

Child care was provided the first two days of school for mothers visiting their children in kindergarten.

The next board meeting will be held Thursday, October 6. The first association meeting will be Thursday, October 13.

New Accordion Music

Mrs. Bettie Thomas, local member of the Accordion Teacher's Guild, has announced that Dr. Miklos Rozsa, noted composer, has been commissioned by the Guild to write a selection of serious caliber for the accordion.

CLOTHES TO SUIT YOU . . . Whatever the age, whatever the style, it will be represented at the Annual Catholic Daughters of America Fashion show on Monday, September 26, at Nativity Parish hall. Three of the models for the show are (l-r) Mrs. Corwin G. Dean, 1027 Acacia, wearing a cocktail ensemble in black jersey and gray wool; Mrs. Wnston Hanks, 3522-224th st., in a tailored suit of gray wool flannel; and Mrs. Andre Martin, 1050 West Ocean, wearing a sheath dress in slate-grey wool boucle trimmed with a white linen bow.—Press Photo.

MEMBERS TO MODEL MONDAY

Last minute details for the annual Catholic Daughters of America fashion show, set for Monday, September 26, at 8 p.m. at Nativity parish hall, were worked out at a committee meeting at the home of Mrs. Frances Cavanaugh, chairman for the show.

The theme, "This Is Your Life-In Fashions," is being developed with models showing clothes for the beginning of school, high school, college, weddings, maternity, and matron's styles.

The Gay Shop is supplying adult and teen-age clothes; and children's styles are from Guys 'N' Dolls.

Mrs. Edward J. Dahlen is to be the commentator.

Fashion Committee
Assisting Mrs. Cavanaugh is Mrs. N. G. Hayward as co-chairman, and the committee: Mmes. Ray Rogers, jr., Le Roy Armstrong, Regis Jones, Theresa Finlayson, Regina Cunningham, Howard M. Schott, Murray Rudnick, and Marcel Demonet.

Models will be Mmes. Charles M. Barrett, Corwin G. Dean, William J. Garrity, Winston Hanks, Andre Martin, and William MacDonald.

Teen-age models, Carol Armstrong, Marilyn Revell, and Kathy Schott, are from the junior C.D.A. organizations.

Showing-off small-fry togery will be Marilyn Dobbs, Jimmie and Ronnie Forester, and Marsha Mott.

Epsilon Sigma Slates Show

Epsilon Sigma, chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority will hold a fashion show on Sunday, September 25, at the Beverly Hilton hotel in Los Angeles.

Woman's Club Changes Date Hears Guest

Mrs. Tracy Fewell, district federation extension chairman, will be the guest at the next meeting of the Torrance Women's club today at the home of Mrs. H. L. Mitchell, president.

The meeting will be a coffee in the patio. All federation extension and standing committee chairmen will be present.

Harbor City PTA has announced a change of date for the next meeting. It is now scheduled for September 29, at 6:30 p.m. The meeting will consist of an ice cream social and conferences with the teachers in their respective classrooms.

Mrs. Avis Creech, principal, thought that the individual discussion plan would be more effective than having everyone together in the auditorium.

Maxine Raymond Weds Harvey Reeves

Maxine Raymond became the bride of Harvey W. Reeves in a double ring ceremony at the Garden Wedding chapel in Long Beach.

The bride is the daughter of Sherman Clark of Huntsville, Arkansas. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Reeves of 806 West 141st st., Hawthorne.

The bride wore a gown of apple green silk made on lines reflecting the 18th century period influence on fashion with its princess style front falling in deep folds to the side and back, and its low Gainsborough neckline. Her veil was of matching illusion held by a bandeau of apple green tulle scattered with tiny rose buds. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with a detachable orchid corsage.

Maid of Honor
Miss Judy Raymond, the maid of honor, wore a gown of apricot colored silk with a matching head dress and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses.

The best man was John Johnson; and the ushers were Thomas Thompson and Ronald Clark.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Rex Clark. Reverend L. Hancock officiated.

Mrs. Kathleen Pearson was the soloist and Mrs. Flory Crosby was the organist. The songs chosen by the bride were "At Dawning" and "The Lord's Prayer."

After the reception at the chapel the couple left on a trip to Sequoia and Monterey. They will return to reside at 2116 West 247th st., Lomita.
