Madrona Greets Teachers With Pie and Cake Social

An afternoon pie and cake social was held by Madrona Ave. P-TA recently, in honor of the teachers. All of the teachers were present. Mrs. Raymond Ottoson, hospitality chairman, planned the affair with the assistance of the board members.

Name cards representing slates, and an unusual table decoration were prepared by Mrs. C. A. Fredrickson. Mrs. Henry Burrows, president, presided during the afternoon.

Announcement has been made by Mrs. Phillip Analco, ways and means chairman, that a paper drive will be held on Thursday, October 20 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Mrs. Bud Major is arranging to have papers picked up if they cannot be delivered to the school.

Mrs. Analco also stated that plans are in the offing for a big Halloween carnival to be held on the school grounds on Saturday, October 29.

P-TA Board Holds All-Day Conference

The thirty-third district California Congress of Parents and Teachers executive board met this week in an all day meeting at Torrance High school.

Mrs. H. A. Spurgin called the conference to order and Mrs. Jerrald Kane led the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

An inspirational message was given by Mrs. Herbert Bartlett. Reports were heard from Mrs. H. A. Spurgin on the state board, Mrs. Earl Orr on the fall conference, Mrs. Harold E. Brown on the yearbook committee, Mrs. Edward G. Kemp on the Pomona fair, and Mrs. L. K. Nelson on the El Monte conference.

Membership Buffet Set For Tonight

Tonight the South Bay B'nai B'rith Women's chapter will hold their annual membership buffet supper at the Gardena community center, 1651 Market st., at 7:30 p.m.

Entertainment for the evening, planned by the membership committee for the evening's affair, will feature Miss Frances Hall, folk song specialist, who will present a variety of vocal and instrumental selections. Members of the chapter will also present a skit which will introduce the various phases of B'nai B'rith projects, philanthropies and goals.

This year the South Bay Men's and Women's chapters are planning to emphasize social functions, by combining that aspect with unusual fund raising affairs in the near future.

Women of Jewish faith interested in combining social functions and service work will be welcome to attend this evening's membership buffet supper, said Mrs. Bernard Snitzer, 2720 W. 174th st.

for a luncheon which was held at the First Methodist church. October 2 was scheduled as the opening date for enrollment week.

The calendar was set for October and November.

New President Takes Helm At First Halldale Meeting

Presiding for the first time before the school in her official capacity as president of the Halldale P-TA, Mrs. David P. Goolsby, extended a welcome to the group and expressed a desire for the continuance of the friendly spirit shown by the parents of the assembly.

She stressed that the job of the P-TA was to "see that the public is intelligently informed of school affairs" and also "to create a harmonious understanding between teacher and parent."

Later Mrs. Goolsby introduced the new board members, and new principal, William F. Walton.

Walton said in the future he will bring information about school progress, as well as problems. He announced the school's enrollment of 1400 plus, and thanked the mothers for their patience, understanding, and good sportsmanship with the double session problem.

Mrs. D. K. Mitchell gave the inspirational.

Skit Presented
A skit was presented by board members and Mothersingers, Mrs. Marvin VanDera, magazine chairman, is accepting subscriptions to the California P-TA magazine, and Mrs. John Delsigne, music chairman made an appeal for more Mothersingers.

The Mothersingers meet every Monday at 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the music room, at Halldale, under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Adams.

Next Meeting
Next meeting of the executive board will be October 7th, at 9:30 a.m. in the Teachers Room, at Halldale.

The P-TA extended its special welcome on opening day of school. Coffee and donuts were served to the mothers of newly enrolled students. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ed Holloway, Mrs. George Winers, Mrs. Earl Malone, Mrs. A. G. Schilling, Mrs. F. E. Dye, Mrs. Douglas Cowdrey, Mrs. Harlan Foulter, Mrs. Judson Bowers, and Mrs. A. A. Venable.

Mrs. David P. Goolsby, Mrs. Ray Rhoads, and Mrs. E. E. Salcido assisted with registration.

Lomita P-TA Membership Drive Planned
Mrs. William Rhodes, membership chairman for the Lomita elementary P-TA, recently held a committee meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Talley, president.

Plans were formulated for the membership drive to take place the week of October 3.

Gifts will be given to the rooms obtaining 100 per cent membership and also an extra gift will be given to the room having the most fathers joining. Invitations to join will be sent home with the students.

The following committee members were present: Mmes. Philip Hand, Al Strange, Richard Groverman, Richard Woods, Jo Snodgrass, Robert Oster, Kenneth Bridges, and Walter Talley.

The next board meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 5, at 9:30 a.m., at the home of Mrs. Grover Talley, 2331 248th st.

Mrs. Joseph Puerta, ways and means chairman, will head the paper and rag drive to be held at the school on Tuesday, October 11. Notices will be sent home and trucks will be available for pickups of large amounts.

Proceeds from this drive will be divided evenly between the P-TA and the student body fund.

P-TA Holds Potluck Dinner, Business Meeting and Play

The first meeting of the Torrance Elementary school P-TA was a combination pot-luck dinner, business meeting, and show. The dinner was held on the school playground and a play was given for the group by ACCENT theatre!

Mrs. Henry Heinlein, president of the P-TA, is also president of the theatre group. She played one of the key roles in the show.

"The Parade at Devil's Bridge," a farce comedy, was geared to both the adults and the numerous children present.

Mrs. Hilda Barnhart, publicity chairman, said, "Youngsters and grownups alike thoroughly enjoyed the antics of the Devil as played by Ed Cantle, and the Cat played by Mrs. Kenneth Carlyle. The remainder of the cast, which included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heinlein, Kenneth Carlyle, and Mrs. Frank Kelly, also delighted the audience."

The P-TA is planning a welcome luncheon for the faculty tomorrow at the school.

A paper and rag drive will be held on Friday, October 7, beginning at 7:30 a.m. The gate on Plaza Del Amo will be open.

Mrs. Barnhart said that community contributions to the drive will be welcomed. The budget as presented by Mrs. Heinlein and the program for the coming year as presented by Mrs. Richard Magee were approved.
