OCTOBER BRIDE . . . Miss Alice Lloy Olson became the bride of Lawrence Gerald Conger, on Saturday, October 1, in a ceremony at the First Methodist church.—Seeman Photo.

Alice Olson Weds Lawrence Conger

Proving the truth of the old saying, "All brides are lovely," was Miss Alice Lloy Olson when she became the bride of Lawrence Gerald Conger, on Saturday afternoon, October 1, at the First Methodist church.

The bride's maids were Miss Mitzie Trimiew and Miss Linda Sells. Miss Trimiew wore pink nylon and carried a bouquet of blue carnations; and Miss Sells wore blue nylon and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Cherie Tyler, the flower girl, wore a dress of daffodil yellow with pink ribbons.

Groom's Men
The best man was Stacy Stevens and the ushers were Doug McCallum and A. Barnhill. Jimmy Tyler was the ring bearer and Robert Pupkoff was the candle lighter.

Eva Brundin, the organist, accompanied Joan George in "I Love You Truly" and "Through the Years." Miss Barbara Barnhill was the guest book registrar.

The reception was held in the church reception hall. The couple left for a short local trip before traveling to Oregon.

The bride is in her senior year at Torrance high school and the groom is a graduate of Beaumont high school.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Olson of 1617 Cota avenue. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. A. line with scalloped square neck and short sleeves, and a dropped waist widening into flounce after flounce of embroidered tulle over a hoop skirt. Her gauntlet mitts were of the same material.

She wore a three-quarter length veil of French illusion floating down from a head dress scalloped with seed pearls, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley centered with a white orchid.

Bride's Attendants

The bride's sister, Ann Sciarrotta, matron of honor, wore a full-skirted yellow nylon gown that was draped at the neck; and she carried a colonial bouquet of mixed flowers in pastel shades.
