Knights and Warriors To Clash Friday Nite

It will be Jerry Nicholson, flashy quarterback of the El Camino football Warriors, versus Art Powell, phenomenal halfback of the San Diego Knights, tomorrow night at eight in the Warrior's stadium when the two Metropolitan teams clash in their second conference tilt.

Both Nicholson and Powell lead their teams in scoring, blasting over for six touchdowns apiece, with Nicholson passing for two other TD's.

The Camino versatile quarterback has accounted for eight of his team's eleven touchdowns in four games.

In its first conference battle Friday over on the East Los Angeles turf, the Warriors rolled up an impressive 20-6 win, with the Huskies getting their six pointer on a 60-yard pass play with only two seconds remaining in the game.

Nicholson repeating his feat of the Modesto clash, ran for two touchdowns and passed to End Tedd Wall for another.

Fullback Don Kulpaca and Tackle George Peltier played an outstanding game as did the rest of the fired-up Warrior squad.

San Diego meanwhile had its hands full when they ran up against an inspired Harbor eleven the same night. The Seahawks scored two touchdowns in the last six minutes of play to erase the Knights 13-7 lead and upset the San Diego squad, 21-13.

San Diego and El Camino had both gone through their non-conference games undefeated.

The Knights won from Fullerton JC 41-26, Phoenix JC 21-13, and the Long Beach Naval Station 21-0.

El Camino won over their strong alumni team 20-13, took the measure of Modesto JC 18-0, and were tied 14-14 by Los Angeles City College.

In eight conference games El Camino and San Diego have
