Elks Plan Celebration of Know Your America Week

The All-America conference to combat communism has designated the period of November 20-26 as "Know Your America Week." The Order of Elks, one of some 54 organizations affiliated in the All-American conference, is a sponsor of "Know Your America Week."

Store Plans 23rd Birthday Celebration

The Star Furniture Store, 2103 Torrance Blvd., oldest furniture store in Torrance, is celebrating its twenty-third anniversary next week.

The store is owned and operated by Steve Schmidt, Frank Higgins, and Kenneth Belles. "The store was here," said Schmidt, "when Torrance was no more than a weed patch, and has grown up along with the city."

"We are celebrating the anniversary by offering a splendid group of super bargains," he announced. They are planning to begin a drawing for prizes on November 4. Tickets for the first drawing will be given free and subsequently the tickets will be given according to the amount of merchandise bought. Prizes at the drawings will be valuable pieces of merchandise.

The three partners bought the store from Jack Cook five years ago. Previous to that time they had worked in the store. Higgins has been with the store for 23 years, Schmidt for 21 years, and Belles for 10 years.

Schmidt, member of the Masonic lodge, is married and has two daughters, Eileen and Charlotte. The Schmidts live at 716 Acacia.

Higgins is a member of the Plan Observance Torrance lodge No. 1948, of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, is endeavoring to organize a community wide observance of "Know Your America Week."

CLASS TO DISCUSS MARRIAGE

The next YWCA "Marriage for Moderns" class will be held at the home of Mrs. Yolanda Stewart, 3234 Torrance Blvd., at 8 p.m. The title of the class will be "Personality Conflicts in Marriage."

These classes in marriage relations are under the direction of Dorothy Lawe, consultant in religious psychology. Two more classes will be held after this one; on Monday, October 24, and on Sunday, November 6.

Classes are open to the public and information may be obtained by calling FAirfax 8-2271.
