Services For Mrs. Brooks To Be Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Bertha Morey Brooks, 65, of 16818 Thornburgh ave., will be held today, Thursday, October 20, at 3 p.m., in Pierce Brothers Little Church around the Corner, 3443 West Manchester Blvd., Rev. Richard Parker officiating.

Interment will follow in the Chapel of the Pines.

Mrs. Brooks was a teacher in the Torrance Unified School District and had been retired since 1950. She taught in California for 22 years, prior to which she taught in Minnesota.

A native of Winona, Minnesota, she came to California 27 years ago. She died Sunday, October 16 in the Los Angeles General Hospital and is survived by her son, Philip Daniel Brooks, two sisters, and four grandchildren.

Quarantine Will Restrict Dog Travel

Hunters, travelers and dog showmen won't be allowed to transport their dogs after an impending quarantine becomes effective in 26 counties unless the animals are inoculated against rabies.

Dr. George M. Uhl warned Friday that Los Angeles residents may not remove their dogs without official permission once the quarantine is imposed.

Expect more good things than ever before!
