

Board Holds Ratification of New Officers

Members of the Madrona Avenue Elementary Parent-Teacher Association board had luncheon in the school patio following their regular monthly meeting.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Henry Burrows, president. Ratification of new chairmen was made.

Those included: Mrs. Nolan Stuckey, magazine chairman; Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh, newsletter chairman; Mrs. Burton Easley, coffee chairman; Mrs. Harry Campbell, coffee co-chairman; and Mrs. J. G. D'Ornelas, legislation chairman.

Two of the teachers at Madrona will share the safety captainship — Mrs. Lowery and Mr. Redding.

A report was made by Mrs. R. J. Triplett, chairman of the room representatives, about the coffee hour her co-chairman, Mrs. Jack Brooks, had held at her home to entertain all of the room representatives for this year.

George Marich, the principal, and Mrs. Fitzgerald, the school nurse, were present to help the room mothers plan the parties which will be given for the classes.

These same room mothers were involved in a committee meeting which met at the home of Mrs. Burrows to make arrangements for the Halloween Carnival which is to be held on the school grounds on Saturday, October 29.

Each of the room mothers will be in charge of a booth, and will contact other mothers from her class to assist her.

A paper and rag drive will be held at the school on Thursday, October 20 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Pickup service may be arranged by calling the school.

'Teamwork' Theme of First Meeting

'Teamwork With Community Youth' is the theme for the first P.T.A. association meeting to be held at 259th Place school on Thursday, October 27.

Mrs. R. E. Pratin, president, will preside over her first meeting at 2 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Miss Frances Dastarac, school principal, will introduce the faculty and Mrs. Pratin will present the P.T.A. chairmen for the year.

Skits and music will be presented by the 259th Place Scouts and Bluebirds and committees featured will be community youth and community chest.

A room exhibit will be presented by the A6-B6 class.

Child care will be provided. The 259th Place School P.T.A. membership drive was brought to a close last week with an 80 per cent membership.

The prizes were won by Mrs. Alice Bernhardt's room, John Caulkin's room, and John Garlin's room.

The board members met recently at the school. Four new chairmen were ratified by the board members. They were: Mrs. F. E. Schad, art; Mrs. R. E. Torgenson, music; Mrs. R. P. Boderman, magazine; and Mrs. R. E. Christofferson, health and sunshine.

Miss Dastarac announced the annual Halloween parade to be held on the school grounds on October 31 from 1 to 2 p.m.

The executive board ratified Mrs. W. N. Kopley as first vice president, replacing Mrs. C. R. Chitwood who resigned because of illness.

The school paper drive will be held in the spring.

186th Street Sets Carnival Festivities

The 186th Street Parent-Teacher association is planning a gala Halloween carnival to be held on the front lawn of the school on Friday, October 28, from 4 to 8 p.m.

Gaily decorated booths will feature: fishponds, bean bag games, pingpong, tennis ball games, and ring toss. Twin clowns will roam the grounds with balloons and whirlybirds.

Several outdoor booths will sell hot dogs, coffee, cold drinks, cakes, pies, peanuts, and potato chips.

A cake walk, with a chance to win homemade cakes will be a new feature of this year's carnival.

A treasure chest full of surprises will be a place to get a large treasure for a small price. The handwork booth will feature items made and donated by the members of the P.T.A. Movies, too, are scheduled every half hour.

A special treat for the small fry will be "Pick-a-pocket," in whose large skirt with the many pockets, the children will be able to find prizes.
