New Service Station Holds Grand Opening

The new Al Senti's Chevron service station which opened last week at the corner of Sepulveda and Palos Verdes blvd. will celebrate its grand opening Friday and Saturday, October 28 and 29.

Al Senti, owner of the station, stated that there will be free gum and candy for children and that adults will receive five pounds of sugar with every purchase of 10 gallons of gas.

"We invite everyone to visit us and look around," Senti said.

Senti has been in the service station business in this area for 20 years, formerly managing the Standard station in El Segundo.

He is married and has two children, Linda and Sandra. Attending the station is Jack Linn.

Men's Club Dinner Held

The Methodist Men's club held their first meeting of the fall season Wednesday, October 26, beginning with dinner in the dining room of the First Methodist church, corner of El Prado and Manuel.

An illustrated lecture on tuberculosis was given by John Strom.

CANCER FACTOR

Los Angeles scientists of the University of California may have found an inhibiting factor in cancer. It is a naturally occurring substance that functions as an inhibitor of the digestive enzyme, pepsin.

MARKET HALLOWEEN: Homer Garrett, caller of KTLA's Western Varieties square dancing, and the Y-Knot Twirlers, will appear in person from 7 to 10 p.m. Saturday at the annual square dance and Halloween shindig given by Foods Co. market, 174th street and Crenshaw boulevard. There will be free sandwiches, soft drinks, and ice cream for everyone, and prizes for the best Western and Halloween costumes. Gordon Gray will be master of ceremonies, and the Bromme Brothers band will present music selections.

Batonist Will Do Half-Time Spot at Game

The half time show at the Torrance high football stadium October 28 when Tartars will play the Leuzinger team will feature Bob Roberts, noted baton twirler who will be seen with the Tartar band.

Roberts plans to include among his routines a special act with lighted batons.

His virtuosity as a professional drum major is well-known to many Torrance fans who have seen him perform in such events as the Pasadena Tournament of Roses parade and game, Hollywood Santa Claus parade, with the Los Angeles Rams football club band, and Elks Lodge 99 Championship band, as well as twirling clinician has taken him on TV.

Robert's work as a baton-across the United States, teaching at music camps as Idylwild in California, Midwest Band Master's convention in Chicago, Gunnison music camp in Colorado, and Huntsville music camp in Texas.

He has handled the baton-swirling phase of the California school and band-orchestra association festival for the past four years.

Hillside P-TA Carnival Set For Saturday

The much anticipated Hillside P-TA carnival will take place Saturday, October 29. The booths have been geared to amuse adults as well as children.

There will be many games of skill, as well as a country store, green thumb booth and white elephant booth to interest Mom and Dad. Hot dogs, cake, homemade candy, candied apples and hot coffee will be available.

A special event will be the costume parade at 5:30 p.m. on the school playground. Prizes will be awarded in three age groups.

Another special event will be the talent shows to take place at 2 and 4 p.m. under the direction of Mrs. Reba Shanes.

The Carnival will be from 1 until 8 p.m. on the Hillside school grounds.

This is the main money-raising event of the year and is under the chairmanship of Mrs. A. Gunnett.
