

Hillside Will Stress Safety At Meeting

Mrs. Eva Binns, traffic safety superintendent of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, will be the featured speaker at the Hillside P-TA meeting tonight.

Mrs. Binns will speak on "Safety in the Home" and literature will be available to the audience at the conclusion of the meeting.

Three kindergarten classes will take part in the student participation part of the program.

A board meeting was held last week at the home of Mrs. Joseph Miller. During the meeting Peter Barker, safety chairman, presented graphs which he has made, showing the number of vehicles, students and parents which cross Rolling Hills road and Dalemead street.

BURGLARY SUSPECTS ARRESTED

An 18-year-old man who admits to more than 100 burglaries in Torrance and the South Bay area during the last 1 1/2 years, and two juveniles were arrested last Thursday by two alert Torrance police officers on suspicion of burglary.

Apprehended by Officers Wally Nitz and Ray Silagy was Michael A. Afanador, 18, of 4431 West 162nd street, Lawndale, and two juveniles just after having burglarized the home of Adrian Albert, 27, of 2001 West 177th street, according to Torrance detectives.

Further investigation by detectives revealed that the trio had also burglarized the home of Darrell H. Wells, 18428 Falda avenue, that same night.

The evening before the suspect allegedly burglarized the home of Norman E. Marken of 3504 West 185th street.

Objects of Afanador's burglaries were money, clothing, firearms, and jewelry.

Afanador was arraigned on three counts of burglary. The two juveniles were turned over to the Juvenile Bureau.

Big Party For 100-Day Birthday Of Pole-Sitter

Amidst Hollywood and TV actresses, cowboy stars, civil defense official, core of pair of twins, and a giant cake "Happy Birthday" will be sung to Twin Pontiac's nationally famed flag-pole sitter.

For next Wednesday, November 16, will be the 100th day in the air since August 10 when Al Ingman of Redondo Beach ascended the pole to the 65 foot high platform at Twin Pontiac in Hermosa Beach.

Famed Crash Corrigan will head the list of notables and entertainers attending the party which will start at 2 p.m. and will be open to the public.

Elaine Dupont, starring player in "Rin-Tin-Tin" series, will perform rope tricks. Kay Lawrence, 20th Century-Fox contract player who was recently named "Miss Flag Pole Sitter," will cut the cake which will be served to all who attend.

CBS-TV and Radio Station KBIG are scheduled to carry the proceeding of the party directly from 505 Pacific Coast Highway, location of the Pontiac agency.

As a coincidence, Mrs. Eva Ingman, whose third baby was recently born while its father was on the pole, will attend to celebrate her own 24th birthday which comes on the same day.

Refreshments for all and toys for the kids will be on hand.—Adv.
