

Yes, hey Mom, look at these specials! Even a child can recognize the obvious values that are offered by the fabulous F. G. The reason that Food Giant can be so consistently low-priced is rather obvious too . . . the Food Giant sells more food to more people than any other store in the community. It's an endless cycle—high quality and low prices mean more customers—more customers mean even lower prices . . . Even Junior can understand that . . .

Hey, Mom! Look at These.
