

King Urges Narcotics Legislation

Congressman Cecil R. King urged members of the Subcommittee on Narcotics of the Ways and Means Committee in a public meeting in San Francisco, recently to support passage of legislation he has pending in congress to make more severe the penalties for dope peddling.

The veteran South Bay congressman, a leader in the fight against the organized narcotic traffic in the United States, called for further stamping out of the illicit narcotic peddlers by obtaining closer coordination of the activities of federal, state and local authorities.

King praised the enforcement work that is going on in the Los Angeles area where, he stated, "we have a most serious narcotic problem."

"It is significant to note," King said, "that California, which ranks third nationally in regard to addiction, ranks first in the nation in regard to arrests and second in the nation in regard to convictions."

Still Persists

"The fact that the problem persist in the face of these efforts to stamp it out clearly indicates that more stringent laws to fit the heinous nature of this crime are required."

EC Vet Organization Boasts 180 Members

Claiming the distinction of holding the largest membership of any single organization on the campus of El Camino college this semester is Chi-Gamma Iota, student veterans' organization.

Boasting a membership of 180, the GI group outnumbers even the combined faculty-administration group.

Herb Rosenkrantz, president of Chi Gamma Iota, recalls that the group was organized with 30 charter members. Since its addition to the campus program it has come to be known best for the help and assistance which is has offered to El Camino students the chairman indicated.

$1,654 IN PRIZES TO BE OFFERED

Patrons of Mayfair markets in the Los Angeles area have a chance to share in $1,654.20 worth of prizes during the month of November, officials of Mayfair market at 290 Hermosa ave. (in the Redondo Triangle) pointed out this week.

The prizes are being given away in conjunction with the "Lou 'n Linda Show," telecast daily at 1:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, on K.C.O.P. Channel 13.

Prizes to be given away at the end of the month include the following: 2 Adlermatic sewing machines; 4 Waring blenders; 4 Regency transistor radios; 4 Arvin clock radios; 4 Osterette portable mixers; 4 In-A-Vent kitchen ventilators; and 20 silent hair dryers, courtesy of "42" Lemonized cream shampoo.

All a person has to do to become eligible to win one of these prizes is to write his name, address and telephone number on a piece of paper and deposit it in the box provided at the market. Winners will be announced on the "Lou 'n Linda Show" at the end of the month, and will also be notified by the market.

No purchase is necessary in order to register for the prizes.

The state Student Federation of Veterans named the El Camino chapter "the most outstanding veterans' club in California" this year in recognition of the numerous and varied services which the fraternity has performed.

One of the newest services initiated by the vets is the used book exchange, where students may buy or sell books at the beginning of each college semester.

Christmas Parties

Chi Gamma Iota sponsors Christmas parties and picnics for the boys' home at Junipero Serra annually. During a recent drive for textbooks to be sent to a Korean university, the club was active in collecting and packaging books for the damaged institution.

Serving its members as well as the student enrollment, the club initiated a loan fund for veterans of the college this year. It is using profits obtained from its book exchange and will charge no interest on the loans.

Sportswise, the Vets' club has dominated El Camino's intramural program for the past two years. In the touch football and softball tournaments, they have placed first and second teams in the final play.

Not content with mere numerical supremacy, President Rosenkrantz continues to conduct a membership campaign, hoping to offer the facilities of the organization to a larger percentage of former servicemen. Sponsors of the club are Harold R. Woipert, William L. Davies, Jr., and Richard M. Leone, all of the college faculty.
