LOVELY BRIDE... Miss Marilyn Gustafson became the bride of Richard C. Nieman in a ceremony at the First Lutheran church. Portrait by Seeman.

Marilyn Gustafson Weds R. C. Nieman

Months of loving preparation go to create one day in a bride's life, her wedding day. When it comes, it seems to last as long as mist on the mountain side or one particular rainbow which shimmers for a moment against a blue sky, then, is gone. But the beauty distilled from so short a space of time can live in the hearts of those who see, and the memory will light their lives.

Such a moment was created when Miss Marilyn Gustafson came down the aisle on the arm of her father to be united in marriage to Richard C. Nieman.

Her radiance rivalled the glow of the candles shining on the froth of white satin and Irish lace of her ballerina-length gown. Her misty veil bordered with matching lace, fell from a small pearl-encrusted tiara. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Parents

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Gustafson, 427 East 189th st., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey H. Nieman, 402 East 189th st.

The maid of honor, Miss Pat Ginevan, wore a frock of aqua net over taffeta and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. Frank Nieman served the

On the table in the living room, Mrs. Coons has a white net umbrella, under which were figures of a bride and groom. The refreshment table was decorated with white water lilies and white and silver candles. Cards with tiny wedding rings tied with white satin ribbons graced each place.

The cake was decorated with double hearts bearing the names, "Pat and Brad."

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Banning high school.

Shirley Lancaster Weds L. C. Potter

"Love Is a Song That Never Ends," and the loveliest part of the eternal melody is a wedding.

Beautiful as a love song heard once and kept in the heart forever was Miss Shirley Raylene Lancaster when she was united in marriage with Leon C. Potter.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer W. Lancaster, 21511 South Figueroa, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Potter, 2525 Monroe st., Dominguez.

The bride's gown was a confection of white nylon net and tulle with a frothy lace bodice, romantic puffed sleeves and a face-framing Queen Anne collar. Her fingertip veil fell from a small sparkling tiara. She carried a white Testament with a white orchid surrounded by white carnations.

Attendants

Miss Patricia Lancaster attended her sister as maid of honor, and Miss Wanda Lou Potter, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore gowns of buttercup yellow and carried cascade bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Jack Potter, brother of the groom, served as best man. Don McReynolds served as usher.

The double ring ceremony was read by Reverend J. A. Franklin, of the Compton Baptist church, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Potter, Saturday, November 26, at 2 p.m. The home was decorated in a lovely profusion of autumn flowers.
