

agreed with Councilman Merwin Schwab's proposal to get Arlington ave. opened up in order to facilitate traffic in and out of Torrance and to relieve traffic on Crenshaw blvd. City Manager George Stevens hopes to have a statement from Dominguez Land co. next week regarding an easement. Money for the job is available. Columbia Steel, it was stated, has seemed reluctant about the idea in the past.

The parade is expected to last one hour, according to Sgt. D. C. Cook, parade chairman. Among those participating will be Dick Jones, TV's Buffalo Bill, Jr. and the Rangerider's side-kick, who will act as grand marshal; Huntington Park Elks motor cycle unit; about five floats; Western and Indian riders (including Sandy "Little Fox" Cook, riding a black mare); and a performing dog act.

Participants are coming from as far away as San Diego, Riverside, North Hollywood, and Pasadena.
Prizes will be awarded to the

Following the parade, a street dance will be held on Marcelina near Carvens with music furnished by Slim Evans and his "Melody Music Boys."

An auto show will also open Friday night at 7 p.m. with five local auto dealers participating. It will be held on the California bank parking lot on Marcelina near Cravens.

Saturday's program includes the day-long auto show; a visit to Martin's House of Beauty at 10 a.m. by Santa Claus to have his beard trimmed and brushed; entertainment at the auto show starting around 10:30 a.m. and featuring the Melody Studio of Torrance; entertainment in Santaland at 2 p.m. featuring the Melvin Kaiser Studio of Dance from Lomita.

Santa will be on hand Saturday afternoon at Santaland un-

Winner of the main event Sunday, November 20, at the Micro park, 190th and Hawthorne, was Dick Gates, driver of car number 17, followed by Johnny Hysinger, car number 7, second place; and Johnny Fry, car number 63, third place.

High point man for the day was Harry Sakata, car number 2, who also set a track record of 12.69. Second place high point man was Johnny Hysinger; and third was Dick Gates. Low point man was Bob McMurty.

The main event featured 12 cars.

til 6 p.m. to distribute lollipops to the children and to listen to their requests or receive mail.

A colored TV set will be given away at Santaland Friday, December 9. Further details may be obtained from any downtown merchant.

Santa Claus will be in and around downtown Torrance throughout the day from now on until Christmas. Merchants are expected to be open nights starting December 10.

Appreciation
This year's unprecedented Christmas festivities have been organized through the merchants division of the Chamber of Commerce.

"I would like to express my deep appreciation and thanks to John Schwartz, co-chairman; the Kiwanis, Lions, and Optimist clubs; American Legion; committee members Sy Frank, Charlie Gots, Sgt. D. C. Cook, Officers Thompson, Wayne Davis, YWCA, YMCA; AC-CENT; Theatre; and Leo Wagner for the terrific work they have done," Mary Pagac, chairman of the entertainment committee, stated.

Appreciation to these individuals and Mrs. Pagac were also expressed by the Merchants association and Chamber of Commerce.
