Birthday Party

Debbie Scarborough celebrated her first birthday at a party given in her honor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scarborough of 712 Cota avenue, Torrance. Helping Debbie celebrate were Randall Siegrist, Cecilia and Claudia Blahnik, Kerry and Camy Sumowski, Patricia Lilley, Bobby, Sharon and Brenda Wathen, and Johnny Wood.

Party decorations and games carried the Christmas theme, followed by a trip to town to view the Christmas parade and Santa Claus. Debbie's great-grandmother, Mrs. Maude Lilley, and her grandmother, Mrs. W. O. Wallace of Torrance, assisted the children.

JOAN LEECH... Weds

Joan Leech Weds Frank Paour III

It has been written that "of all the forms of beauty, a bride is the only thing that can rival the stars."

The truth of this was evident in the wedding of Miss Joan Maureen Leech, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Leech, 727 Border avenue, to Frank Paour III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paour Jr., 1610 Amapola.

Surrounded by her lovely attendants, the bride stood in gleaming radiance, wearing a gown of frosty Florentine lace which foamed out into a billowing skirt of delicate tulle over yards of net and taffeta. Small petals of lace nestled in the froth of the skirt. Her sheer illusion veil fell from a coronet of rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded with red rosebuds. Other brides might shine in the reflected glow of the candles, but her beauty seemed to be the source of all light which she reflected on those about her.
