Savings and Loan Notes New Offices

S. Mark Taper, chairman of the board of Whittier Savings and Loan association, this week announced the acquisition of the facilities of American Savings & Loan association and Intervalley Savings and Loan association, thereby adding offices in Redondo Beach, Manhattan Beach and Montrose.

The 35-year old association will operate the three additional offices, as well as the present Whittier Savings offices, under the American Savings & Loan association name.

"The addition of these fine long established facilities to our present organization brings our investors the greater strength of over $80,000,000 in resources and larger reserves than ever before, as we join the ranks of the largest savings and loan associations in the entire United States," stated Taper.

Taper also announced that the board of directors had approved
