

Dog That Bit Girl Located

Painful Pasteur treatment was discontinued this week for a seven-year-old girl as the dog who had bitten her was located and found not to be rabid.

Launa Williams, 8, daughter of Mrs. Georgetta Williams, 2305 West 166th street was able to stop taking the shots after having had to endure eight of them.

The dog was located Thursday in Hawthorne after a story appeared in the Torrance Press. The dog was traced to a Hawthorne family through Richard Oliver an El Camino instructor who had picked up the dog.

Alter Realty Management Shows Gains

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of Leads, incorporated, local investment corporation, all officers were re-elected for another year and the firm of Alter Realty and Insurance was again retained to manage their affairs, according to announcement of Gerald L. Alter, president of Alter Realty and Insurance, and also vice-president of Leads, incorporated.

At the meeting, it was noted that the capitalization was quadrupled within the past year and the directors were further authorized to take steps to more than double the present capital in the near future.

The corporation, organized in 1948 with only $5135 in paid capital, now has in excess of $40,000 worth of property and securities, mostly in this area.

Most of this increase has occurred under the management of Alter Realty and Insurance, Realtors, Insurers and property management specialists, who also manage the Alter Building company, Torrance Building Maintenance company, and the Torrance Mortgage company.
