

N. H. ZRINYI

Dentist Starts Practice At New Address

Nicholaus H. Zrinyi, D.D.S., has begun general practice at 1104 Sartori avenue. He practiced at Harbor General hospital in Torrance from 1947 until 1955, with the exception of a two year period which Dr. Zrinyi spent in the United States Public Health Service. During this time he spent one year of dental practice at the Wajo Reservation and seven months practice in Alaska. The remainder of the time was spent in practice at Sherman Indian school of Riverside. Previous to his work at Harbor General, Dr. Zrinyi practiced in Inglewood for one year. He is a graduate of the University of Southern California Dental college, class of 1945. He was born in Montana and came to Los Angeles in 1938.

H. R. HUDSON

Industrial Realtor To Speak Here

H. R. Hudson, industrial realtor, Los Angeles, will be the speaker at the January 17 chamber monthly breakfast meeting, Paul D. Loranger, president, announced today. Hudson is a well known industrial realtor with more than 20 years of work in that business. He was a featured speaker at an industrial development conference held last October sponsored by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. Special invitations are being sent to members of the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors to attend and participate in this meeting. Chamber members and others are asked to call chamber office FA. 8-2814 immediately for reservations for the breakfast.

Lomita Contractor To Address Lions Club

Leo Shaw, Chilean attorney, lecturer, and now a contractor in Lomita, will address the Lomita Lions on Tuesday, January 17, at 8:45 p.m. The subject will be "Barter Unlimited."
