

B'nai B'rith Plans Officer Dinner Dance

South Bay B'nai B'rith Lodge 727 will hold its annual installation of officers Saturday, January 21, at a dinner dance at the Inglewood Country club.

President-elect Bernard Snitzer, an active member for five years, has served, as treasurer, first vice-president and second vice-president and has headed many committees. Other officers to be installed are: Hank Carriere, first vice-president; Larry Albert, second vice-president; Anthony J. Marano, warder; Sam Waterman, guardian; Henry Burke, recording secretary; Leonard Fink, corresponding secretary; and Nathan Low, financial secretary-treasurer.

The board of trustees are to be: Abraham Bonsharov, Isadore Weinstein, Bernard Yeskin, Bill Zelan, Alan Rothholz, and William B. Balmuth.

Those desiring to attend may make reservations by calling Nathan Low, DA. 4-4679. Honored guest will be Arthur Hersh, installing officer. Assisting installing officer is Sam Franklin, past president. Another honored guest will be Albert Isen, Mayor of Torrance and a past president of the lodge.

This begins the seventh year the South Bay Lodge has been in existence. During this time a great many honors and awards have been achieved in their many activities. The Anti-Defamation League, Hillel, Blood Bank, B.B.Y.O., are but a few. This year South Bay

New Member Tea Planned

The Torrance Woman's club will honor new members with a tea at the home of Mrs. M. A. Bauman, membership chairman.

A total of 37 new members will be welcomed at the affair to be held from 2 to 4 p.m.

The executive board will be hostesses for the afternoon.

A6 Festivities

Plans for the annual A6 graduation party and chicken dinner occupied the greater part of the business at a recent board meeting of the Leland Street P.T.A.

The party is scheduled for Tuesday, January 24.

The committee in charge of games includes: Mesdames Cecil King, Charles Short, Martin Slavich and Paul Kornegay.

Lodge was particularly honored by winning an award from the Los Angeles Jewish Community council for their outstanding work for the United Jewish Welfare Fund.

On the social agenda, one of the many enjoyments of the lodge is an active bowling team that meets twice a month at the 101 Bowling Alley.

Many new plans are being formed at this time for a full social and service year. The new meeting place is the Gardena Valley Jewish Center, 14723 South Gramercy place in Gardena on the first and third Thursday of the month.

Ladies Note Outcome of Card Party

The friendship committee of the Women of the Moose held a card party recently. There were 14 tables. Many prizes were won.

On Sunday, January 29, the Mid-Winter Conference will be held in Long Beach in the Moose Hall. The speaker of the day will be Josephine Wiggins of the Lakewood chapter. She will speak on "Rewards of Service."

There will also be initiation and investiture services.

The Torrance chapter will take charge of the endowment funds. All the money collected will be sent to Mooseheart to help with the expenses.

Wednesday, January 25, is the regular business meeting of the Women of the Moose.

Reports are due from the publicity, Senior Regent, Mooseheart, child care, and home-making committees.

New Course For Expectant Parents Set

A mid-winter course for expectant parents will be inaugurated today, January 19, at the Torrance Health center, 2300 Carson, according to Dr. B. A. Kogan, district health officer, under whose direction the classes are organized for the County Health department.

The classes will meet every Thursday at 1 p.m. with Mrs. Kristine deQueiroz, Public Health nurse-instructor in charge. In addition to demonstration on formula preparation and baby bath technique, Mrs. deQueiroz will have shown the latest fashions and equipment for babies.

"Human Growth" a film showing the development of the human organism from mating through pregnancy and birth, then from infancy through childhood and adolescence to the adult form, has been booked for this first class.

There is no registration or other fee. The course is a tax-supported educational service of the Los Angeles County Health department.

Classes Open In Lampshade Construction

Make that lovely lampshade you have been dreaming about, urges the Adult Education department, by joining one of the free classes in lampshade making and home arts taught by Viola Boas.

Classes meet as follows: North Torrance high school, 182nd and Yukon, Room 39, Wednesday, 7 to 10 p.m.

El Retiro Park, Hollywood Riviera, Vista del Parque and Highway 101, Thursdays, 1 to 4 p.m.

Mira Costa high school, Gould Lane, Manhattan Beach, Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Visitors are welcome said Mrs. Boas. A total of 25 signatures can open a new class in any district if space is available. Information may be obtained by calling the Adult Education department.

Exceptional School Tour

Gardena-Wilmington Council P.T.A. held its first organizational meeting for the coming "Mothers March of Dimes" on January 31st for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, under the leadership of Mrs. W. A. Blacker, president.

Mrs. Margaret Clark, manager of woman's division of March of Dimes, in conjunction with Mrs. John C. Large, field representative for Mothers March of Dimes, showed the film "Remember Me" which stressed the many people who are still in the hospitals in need of aid due to the crippling effects of polio through the past years.

It was also stressed that although the vaccine is being made available and is reducing the rate of polio, there is still much to be expended upon patient rehabilitation which is made possible from the "Mothers March of Dimes" drive.

Unit PTAs represented were Amestoy Ave., Carson St., Chapman Ave., Denker Ave., Delores St., Dominguez, Fries Ave., Gardena-Elementary, Gulf Ave., Hawaiian Ave., 186th St., 156th St., 135th St., and 232nd St.

PTA Hears Polio Fund Representative

Speaker at the recent Crenshaw Elementary P.T.A. meeting Parent Teachers was a representative from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

She explained the work of the organization and stressed the need for mothers to work on the March of Dimes, Tuesday evening, January 31. A film was shown depicting the crippling effects and care of victims of the disease.

Membership chairman, Mrs. Dane Walker, announced that the Crenshaw P.T.A. has 465 members. Thirty-five more are needed to meet the goal before March.

The cooperation and response to the request for food and toys for White Gift Day was praised by Mrs. Don Sayre, welfare chairman. She stated that fourteen families were recipients of baskets for Christmas.

Miss Phyllis Hulsenga and Kenneth Blake had the highest percentage of members at the meeting thereby winning attendance prizes.

Plans for the first Honorary Life Membership to be given at Crenshaw were discussed at the board meeting on Wednesday, January 18.
