Baptist Young People Set Full Schedule

The youth of Walberta Baptist Church had a busy week lined up. On Friday evening, January 20, they will go to El Monte to the Youth Rally, where their sponsor, Larry Ward, will be the main speaker.

Sunday evening, January 22, the adults will be their guests. Special speaker will be Miss Florence Smith, of the Sunday school department, Gospel Light Press, Glendale.

In the Fall Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lilly took a Greyhound trip to visit their childhood homes. Since their return they have described the various Sunday schools which they attended along the way. This Sunday Mrs. Lilly will tell of their visit to the Navaho Indians in Mauck, Arizona.

Church talent was appreciated at the recent social hour. Dennis Harvey and Jan Stanley rendered a trumpet duet of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." Mrs. Thomas Britt and Norman Goodrich sang a vocal duet, "Some Golden Daybreak."

A.F.S. Begins Planning for New Students

Members of the American Field Service held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Dean L. Sears, 1635 Post ave., recently.

Discussion centered around the choice of homes for the 1955-1957 foreign students who will be coming here to study next year. Homes in Torrance or the Riviera district will be considered.

The members gave a breakfast for the Chamber of Commerce this week at the YWCA. All proceeds of the breakfast are for the A.F.S. work.

Cooking and serving the food were: Mrs. J. D. Moseley, Mrs. A. C. Turner, Mrs. M. Schwab, and Mrs. C. M. Lippencott. Special aid was given by Larry Lippencott in the role of a bus boy.

Gloria Montesinos, Ary Willemssen, and Arno Mehling, foreign students studying at Torrance and North Torrance high schools, have begun their series of lectures for the various civic organizations.

They spoke last night at El Nido school and will speak to night at the Seaside school.

O.E.S. Takes 'A Trip To The North'

Torrance chapter 380, Order of the Eastern Star, held its regular meeting in the Masonic Temple on Sartori avenue. The meeting was called to order by Worthy Patron Edward Morgan, and Worthy Matron Dorothy Fylken presided.

The theme for the evening was "A Trip to the North."

Past Grand Matron Bertie Y. Todd Connolly, was escorted and given the grand honors. Past matrons and past patrons were also escorted and presented.

Associate Patron Frank Thompson, introduced the many visitors who were from San Fernando, Los Angeles, Lomita and Bakersfield, California; and from Asheville, North Carolina; Watertown, South Dakota; and Arvada, Colorado.

The next meeting of the chapter will be Thursday, January 19, and will be the first initiation of the year.

St. Andrew's Auxiliary Will Meet In L.A.

The annual business meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles, will be held at St. Paul's Cathedral, Figueroa at Wilshire, Los Angeles, on Tuesday, January 24, from 10 a.m. to 2:45 p.m.

Among the Woman's Auxiliary members attending the meeting from St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia avenue, Torrance, will be: Mesdames A. C. Turner, H. C. St. Martin, Clarence Andrews, Hugh R. Percy, Arlynn Swenson, Richard Osgood, M. Solomon, Walter Silence, Richard Lennartz, and Robert Sleeth.

The Right Reverend Francis Eric Bloy, Bishop of Los Angeles, will administer Holy Communion to the members, after which he will install diocesan convocational, and parish officers in a service of dedication.

Speaker of the morning will be Sister Daisay Kitchens of the Church Army, a society of laity in the Episcopal church. Sister Kitchens has worked among the Ute Indians in Utah, and has done settlement work in slums and overseas.

St. Andrew's Will Institute New Rector

St. Andrew's Episcopal church, 1432 Engracia avenue, Torrance, will officially install the new Rector, the Reverend Hugh R. Percy, B.A., B.D., as incumbent on Sunday afternoon, January 22, at 5 p.m.

Officiating at the service of institution will be the Right Reverend Donald James Campbell, D.D., Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of Los Angeles. Participating in the service will be many rectors of Episcopal churches throughout the Harbor area.

Presenting the keys of the parish to Reverend Percy, will be Howard Percy, senior warden, and other members of the vestry: Frank Bentwood, Frank Church, Joseph Disario, Geza Orley, Benjamin Roberts, Albert Sadunas, Robert Sleeth, Jr., Ralph Sprout, James Weir, Frank Willson, and Jack M. Lynn.

Following the Service of Institution, a coffee hour will be sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary, headed by Mrs. A. C. Turner, chairman. Members and friends of the parish are cordially invited to attend, reported Mrs. Richard Osgood, parish secretary.

PTA Votes 2 Honorary Memberships

Harbor City P.T.A. board voted to give two honorary life memberships in February, rather than only one.

Mrs. Charles Hilzer, president, will be the chairman for the March of Mothers to be conducted by the members of the Harbor City P.T.A. on Tuesday, January 31, from 7 to 9 p.m.

Harbor City P.T.A. will have their January meeting today, January 19, at 12:15 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Topic for the month will be "Teamwork Does It" with youth groups sponsored by the P.T.A. displaying craft work.

Class room visitation is set for the third and fourth grades and the afternoon kindergarten. Committees featured will be youth services and safety.

Mrs. Ruth Christman's room 14 and Robert Metcalf's room 10 will act as hostesses.

Openings Set for Nursery

Openings now exist at the Gardena Cooperative Nursery school in the two day, Tuesday and Thursday sessions. Children who enroll in these classes will become acquainted with the school and its routine and may later enroll in the three and five day sessions as openings become available.

The school holds classes at the Alondra Park Methodist church grounds, 3153 West Compton boulevard, just off Crenshaw boulevard.
