In a setting of glowing flowers and shimmering formal gowns, Mrs. Stelma Norris was seated as oracle of the Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors at the installation held at the Woman's clubhouse recently.

Mrs. Margaret Stavens was the installing officer. She was assisted by Marie Bankston, Mary Schroeder, Mary Baker, Hilma Malin, Nellie Smith, Louise Walker, Marie Koshak, Cordie McDermott, and Angeline Disario.

Bobcats and Eagles Tie for Best Skit

Bobcats Gray-Y club and Golden Eagles Gray-Y club tied in presenting the best skit at the Torrance YMCA Skit and Talent Night held at the YMCA.

Over 100 persons attended the event to see the Bobcats present their version of the 1956 Olympic Games. Representing athletes of various nations, the Bobcats participated in the "javelin throw" with straws, "discus" with pie plates, and "broad jump" on pogo sticks.

The Golden Eagles presented a shadow skit which supposedly took place in an operating room with the surgeon using such instruments as a saw, chisel, brace and bit, and pliers. A flip of a coin had to decide which club could take the pennant home, with the Bobcats winning. The Bobcats won the attendance award.

Torrance Supplies Hero And Director to Redondo

Torrance has supplied the hero and the director for "Lily, the Felon's Daughter," three-act melodrama opening for a two-night benefit run tomorrow, January 27, at 8 p.m. at Redondo Union High school auditorium.

Charles Hackbush will be on home empty handed, however, as they were awarded a pennant for winning the recent touch football league.

Other clubs presenting skits were the Vikings and the Blackfeet. Jack Breglio, leader of the Vikings was the song leader for the evening.

the receiving end of all the cheering, while Jack Hudson of ACCENT: Theatre! will bite his nails in directorial anxiety.

Both are among two dozen South Bay teachers, parents, and boosters of the Hillcrest School PTA in Redondo, which annually stages a show to raise money for glasses, milk, lunches, medical and dental care, and special entertainment for deserving students.

Hackbush is well-known as leading man for the Hampton Players, while Hudson has directed for the local civic theatre.

Tickets may be obtained from Hudson at FA. 8-4397.

The whole melodrama, complete with music and specialty acts, will show two nights in Redondo, then may be brought to Torrance in March as a feature of the YMCA fund-raising drive, under the sponsorship of ACCENT: Theatre!
