MRS. FRANK FISHER, JR. ... Lovely bride. Seeman Photo.

Carol Maloy Weds Frank Fisher, Jr.

Life is a search for beauty and humanity seeks to create it. The gift of creating a beautiful thing is rare and depends on many qualities, grace, purity, and the glowing quality of the soul.

It is given to us to see these qualities combine at the time of a wedding and the memory lasts forever like a shaft of sunlight in a safe and quiet place.

Such a moment took place when Miss Carol Maloy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Maloy of 1752 Gramercy ave., became the bride of Frank Fisher, Jr., at the First Methodist church, on Saturday, January 21.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher of 2427 Beech.

The enchanting bride chose a gown in the traditional elegance of delicate frosted lace, a whirl of sheerest tulle, and the sparkling touch of deftly scattered sequins. Her fingertip veil of imported French illusion fell from a pearl-tipped princess crown. She carried a white Bible graced with a white orchid surrounded by lilies of the valley.

Attendants
Her matron of honor, Mrs. Dale Fox, and her bridesmaid, Mrs. Allen Johnson, were a symphony in shades of pink. Mrs. Fox carried a bouquet of yellow carnations and jonquils; and Mrs. Johnson carried a bouquet of yellow carnations.

Don Fisher, brother of the groom, served as best man, and the ushers were: Dale Fox, John Fraser, and Dick Maloy, the brother of the bride.

Over 250 guests were assembled to hear the Reverend John Taylor, assisted by Leonard Babcock, read the double ring ceremony.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of exquisite navy blue lace over taffeta, with navy blue accessories; and the mother of the groom was lovely in pale blue silk with scattered touches of gold.

The church was decorated in a profusion of flowers; and white tapers lined the aisle and shone around the front of the altar.

The reception was held at the church immediately following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance high school and El Camino college. She is a Past Honored Queen of Job's Daughters and a member of the Eastern Star. The groom is a graduate of Irving High school of Texas and El Camino college.

The couple are at home now at 1414 Cravens ave.

O.E.S. Holds First 1956 Initiation Fee

Two new members were initiated when Torrance chapter 380, Order of the Eastern Star, held its first initiation for 1956 recently, in the Masonic Temple on Sartori avenue.

A large group of members and visitors were present to witness the ceremony. Worthy Patron Edward Morgan, called the meeting to order, and Worthy Matron Dorothy Fylkon, presided. Margie Hodgson filled the office of Adah, and Oscar Fossum, Past Patron, filled the office of sentinel.

Deputy Grand Matron Beatrice LaFrance, was escorted and presented, as were the following Worthy Matrons and Worthy Patrons of the District: Betty and Don Meredith of Carnation chapter, Phyllis and Oliver Hamilton of Lomita chapter, Isabell Benham and Fred Cain of Wilmington chapter, Dorothy Sawyer of Point Firmin chapter, Ella France of San Pedro Harbor Chapter, and Agnes Lillegraven of Playa Linda chapter.

The many visitors on the sidelines were introduced by the Associate Patron, Frank Thompson.

A social hour in the banquet hall followed the business session. Tables were decorated with poinsettias and red berries, and refreshments were served by Rolive Bever, chairman, and her committee; Myrtle Clayton and Bettina Miller.

Out-of-state visitors came from South Dakota, Washington, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Minnesota and New Jersey.

Moose Plan Public Dance On Saturday

Saturday, January 28, is another Moose dance at the Moose Hall on Carson street. It is open to the public.

There were 82 members and guests at the Green Beanie Chapter Night of the Women of the Moose in Torrance recently. This included nine Lodge brothers.

The chairs were filled by guest officers: senior regent, La Verne Anderson, from San Pedro; junior graduate regent, Norma Hopper from Long Beach; senior regent, Barbara Fowler from Pamonca; chaplain, Joyce Clay of Torrance; recorder, Bebbe Robinson, of Burbank; treasurer, Ann Schooning, of Santa Monica; sentinel, George Bomes, of Whittier; guard, La Verna Warren, of Compton, and assistant guard, Marilyn Leigh, Fullerton.

Escorts were all College members from Santa Monica, Long Beach, Pamonca and Torrance.

Victoria Kavathus, Joy McCume, and Merie Bales were initiated into the chapter. Carol Seeley spoke on the Convocation and Green Beanie.

Torrance Women of the Moose is the first chapter to honor the Green Beanie by having a Green Beanie Chapter night. This was started last year by Alice Swanson.

Delphians Will View Mexico

The Delphian society will meet this morning, January 26, at the Library, Cravens and Post avenue at 10 a.m. to discuss the topic for the day, "Latin America: Mexico."

Mrs. D. J. Quinlivan will lead the discussion and the openers will be: Mrs. W. G. Smith, Mrs. H. M. Davis, Mrs. Gordon Walker, and Mrs. Allen Pyeatt.

Lodge Sets Breakfast

Torrance Rebekah Lodge 347 will serve breakfast on Sunday morning, January 29, at the Masonic Temple, 1321 1/2 Sartori, from 8 a.m. until noon. The breakfast is open to the public.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS LITTLE ... January wedding.

Miss Phyllis Langie Weds Thomas Little

Diamonds sparkle, candles gleam, and sunlight glows, but none of these things match the radiance of a bride on her wedding day.

Miss Phyllis Langie in the radiant bridal beauty of white lace and tulle was married to Thomas Little on Saturday, January 14, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Little of 17407 Falda ave.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Langie of 6517 6th ave., Los Angeles. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Little.

The bride's gown was ballerina length with a tiny lace jacket. Her fingertip veil fell from a frothy-lace band, and she carried a white orchid surrounded by white carnations.

Sharon Feltsmeyer, the bridesmaid, wore a gown of whip-cream pink net styled in ballerina length.

Gary Little, brother of the groom served as best man.

Bishop Gant read the double ring ceremony.

The mother of the groom wore an ensemble of black and white and the mother of the bride chose a frock of blue and gold.

The reception was held at the home immediately following the ceremony.

The bride will live with her husband's family while he is in the Navy stationed in San Diego.

Church Sets Membership Dinner Plans

Dr. Earl D. Barnum, minister of the Church of Religious Science, Redondo Beach, has announced that the monthly pot-luck dinner and membership meeting will be held on Sunday evening, January 29, in the Masonic dining hall, Ruby and Catalina avenues, Redondo. The time is 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Ruth Case, social chairman, will be in charge of the culinary department, assisted by other church members. "Mrs. Case may be contacted at FR. 5-4646 for suggestions as to food contributions for the dinner," said Dr. Barnum.

"All members and friends of the church," says Dr. Barnum, "are invited to come."

This month's program will be under the leadership of Mrs. Lee Johnson, who is chairman of the education program of the church.

Mrs. Johnson has secured a film as an entertainment feature of the evening. Also, she will present a brief, up-to-date report of the findings of her educational committee regarding modern education as applied to the religious field.
