Do you want to get in on another "first," and spend the evening enjoying some of the finest entertainment in Torrance? If so be one of the "first" to get your tickets for "N-Review," North High's first Variety Show. The date is February 11, and it will be presented in the Torrance high auditorium.

This show will be based on some TV programs that many of us have seen. Many long hours of hard work and practice have gone into this program to make it the best that North high will ever see.

Those helping with production will be Mrs. Warren, general director, Mr. Baum, musical director, Mr. Hoefler, technical director, and Mr. Bereskin, skit writer.

The three skits to be presented on the program will be "The Krisko Kid in Torrance Gulch," "Fishnet" starring Sergeant Monday, and "The Sad Life of Ulysses Ogelthorp," a teacher at North high.

So come out and display some of that wonderful school spirit that was so evident at the football games.

Snoopin' Around

Judy Ballares and Dave Gilbert are still gazing dreamily into each others eyes, while John Thomas and Dick Golden have eyes for no one but each other. Charlotte Ewins and Lowell Colwell are a new couple.

Among the newly engaged is Dixie Stein and Bruce Sadler. Also a lot of Saxons have taken the final steps to the altar. Among them are Margaret Cowart, Babs Hilton, Marjorie Osterloh, and Phyllis Langie.

The Pin Cushion

Ardene Smith is patiently waiting for her "Chuck" to come home.

My how Barbara Cage gets around lately. I can hardly keep track of her activities. I hear a few boys took a little dip after the winter formal. How about that?

That's all for this week. Just keep having fun and I'll be around to print it. Sniff-Sniff-Sniff.

Riddle of the week—Who's the new girl in Bob Wyatts life? Pat Mahoney.

Educational Series Planned At Narbonne

Mrs. John Blackman, president of Narbonne High School P. T. A., announced the opening of a series of meetings, arranged by Mrs. Don Wolf, School Education Chairman next Monday night, February 6, 1956.

These meetings, according to Mrs. Don Wolf, are to acquaint the community with their school.

The series which will be introduced by Jan Willem Pluim, Counseling and Guidance Supervisor of Los Angeles City High Schools will touch on all phases of the educational and activity program at the local high school.

A question and answer period will be part of each meeting. The meetings which will be held weekly throughout the month of February and the first week of March, will start at 7:30 in Narbonne High School Auditorium.

The date and topics are as follows:

February 6th — Needs of Youth; February 14th — The Curriculum and Graduation Requirements; February 20th — The Curriculum and Specialized Training; February 27 — Student Activities; March 5th — High schools plan for the future.

Agency Aid Available for Rehabilitation

Red Cross this week moved from the emergency housing and feeding stage into the problem of rehabilitation for families whose homes and furnishings were affected in last week's unprecedented storm.

No estimate as to the amount of damage which will require Red Cross help was yet available, but in a special statement, Dr. Don Moshos, chairman of the Torrance branch, pointed out that families who have suffered losses beyond immediate financial means of replacement should contact the Los Angeles Red Cross chapter, 1200 South Vermont st., at DUnkirk 4-5261.

"Red Cross will provide funds for the repairing of flood damaged homes and the furnishing of rugs, blankets and other items necessary to get back to normal living.

"This assistance is an outright gift," explained Dr. Moshos. "A matter of neighbor helping neighbor through the channels made possible by contributors to the annual Red Cross fund campaign."

EVERY MAN who is high up likes to think that he has done it all himself, and the wife smiles and lets it go at that—Sir James M. Barire.

Tall TALE LANDS HER ON TOP

Mrs. Jean Rhodes of 2344 west 239th told a big fib about catching cat-fish in a mouse trap and not only got away with it, but she won first place as well.

The occasion was a contest among members of the Public Speaking Adult Class of Torrance, held Monday evening January 23 in the dining room of the Westerner.

Twelve speakers tried to outdo each other in exaggerating the truth and Mrs. Rhodes came in first, while Lloyd Tyson, of 616 E. Carson, was the runner-up.

Chairman for the evening, was Louis Bereskin, speech instructor at North high.

Judging the contest were Mrs. Mae Massler, and Messrs. B. Nosek and L. Bernskin.

These courses in public speaking are being offered free to the public under the direction of the Adult Education department, of the Torrance Unified School system. Training is offered in curing stage fright, salesmanship, oral interpretation and effective speaking. Classes are held Monday nights at Torrance high school.

Bureau Tells Urgent Need For Volunteer Workers

The Volunteer Bureau at 1628 Gramercy Avenue in Torrance announced that many new requests have been received for volunteer workers in the Torrance-Lomita area.

Special skills are not essential for many of the categories, and anyone with a few hours of spare time is urged to contact the Bureau for information. The telephone number is FAirfax 8-7998, and the office is open from 7 to 9 p.m. each Tuesday and from 2 to 5 and 6 to 8 p.m. every Friday.

Help is needed by all of the local health and welfare agencies, such as the Red Cross, hospitals, clinics and recreation centers.

Some of the jobs to be filled are: nurses aides, receptionists, translators of foreign languages, drivers of cars for handicapped or blind, craft and art instructors, clerical workers, and persons who can tell stories or read to children and write letters for patients.

The Volunteer Bureau is operated by the Pilot Club of Torrance under the auspices of the Harbor Area Planning council, a Community Chest supported agency.

Leaders for Red Cross Drive Named

With the spotlight firmly focused on disaster as it spread in the form of floods from Northern California to Torrance and Los Angeles, Chairman Albert Isen announced that leading roles in Torrance's 1956 Red Cross fund raising program were completely filled this week.

Isen stated that key campaign divisions will be handled by the following: Advanced Gifts, Richard S. Pyle of Pacific Telephone co.; South Torrance residential, Mrs. Grace Haggott, 23250 Roberts road; North Torrance residential, Mrs. Herma Tillum of Torrance Personnel agency; Small Business, David Figuerede, 2500 Torrance blvd.; Commerce and Industry co-chairmen, Al Hins of Harvey Machine Co. and Scott Albright of National Supply co.

Emphasizing the necessity for fast and thorough volunteer organization to bring about record-breaking results needed to finance excessive disaster rehabilitation costs facing Red Cross, Isen urged Torrance residents to "respond quickly and willingly when asked to join the 1956 Red Cross campaign teams."

"I think that the effects of last week's storm here in Torrance together with the flood situation in northern California, clearly indicate how Red Cross is on the job for us," Isen pointed out.

Kiwanians Of Walteria Plan Charter Night

Newest of the local Kiwanis clubs will be launched at a charter dinner to be held Saturday, February 4 at 7 p.m. at El Camino college campus center, it was announced by Joe Bellante, Walteria realtor and president of the new club.

Formation of the club and the charter night dinner has been sponsored jointly by the Kiwanis clubs of Torrance and Lomita. The semi-formal affair will host all Kiwanis members, their wives and friends of Hawthorne, Torrance, Redondo, Lomita and adjacent communities.
