Approach to Living Is Discussed
 Nativity Catholic church at 1447 Engracia avenue, will open a series of nine evening sermons on the personal life of man starting Friday, February 3, through Sunday, February 12, at 7:30 p.m. The Reverend Father Thomas A. Morrison, O. P., of the Dominican Missionaries, will preach the Novena.
 Father Morrison is quoted as saying: "We all know from whence we came. It is obvious where we desire to go—Heaven. But is our daily life on this path? If this Mission fails to instruct you, it is guaranteed not to bore you."
 In addition to the evening services, daily mass will also be held at 6, 7:30 and 8:30 a.m. during the Novena. The public is invited.

Madrona to Hold Paper Drive Today
 Madrona school will hold a paper drive today, February 2. The fourth grades provided the entertainment for the recent association meeting of the Madrona P.T.A. The program consisted of slides and talks by the students on the subject of the Missions of Old Mexico. The presentation was supervised by Mrs. S. Stine and P. Stone.
 The El Camino college choral group, under the direction of Neil Hill, were guests on the program.
 Mrs. L. Dyer, Mrs. H. Lowry, and Mrs. A. U. Turner were nominated to choose the recipient of the Honorary Life Membership pin and card. A donation of $25 will be sent to the California Council of Parents and Teachers for scholarships and student loans, in the name of the Life Member.
 It was announced that the next meeting would be held Wednesday, February 15.
 At the recent board meeting, reports were given by Mesdames H. McCormick, N. Fedoruk, J. Brooks, E. Vaughan, and C. Hardinghaus.
 Mrs. B. Steele gave the inspirational.

Walteria PTA Founders Day
 Plans for the annual Founders' Day meeting of the Walteria School P.T.A. will be discussed at a gathering of the group's board today at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Wagner, 24740 Winlock Rd.
 The Founders' Day meeting is slated for 2 p.m. on Feb. 9 at the school auditorium. Past presidents will be honored and a nominating committee will be selected.
