743C Webelos Going Places

Webelos of Harbor City Cub Scout Pack 743C are really going places these days, reported Juanita Wallick.

Six of the boys who will graduate at the annual Blue and Gold dinner were invited to accompany their future Scout Troop 743 on a snow trip to Big Pine recently.

As a graduation party, the group went recently to spend a day at Disneyland.

Webelos Leader Troy Collum supervised the boys, assisted by his wife, Pearl Collum; Maggie Travers, and Neal Smith. A cavalcade of cars left early in the morning for the playground, and returned to a tired conclusion much later in the day, said Mrs. Wallick.

The boys had held their own paper drive, for which they earned park spending money.

Those making the trip were: Kenny Griffin, Lonny Collum, Wayne Howell, Ronald Murakami, Nicky Andrade, Richard Rozendal, Donald Pruett, Danny Henderson, Teddy Seden, Jimmy Roberts, Howard Burg, Mickey Maxwell.

Their guests were Gary Smith, Mike, Molly and Pat Travers and Gayle Collum.

Troop 1299 Holds Tea for JayCettes

New members of the JayCettes were entertained at a Mother-Daughter Tea by senior Girl Scout Troop 1299 which they sponsor.

The Paul Shinoda's home at 2716 Torrance boulevard was the setting for the affair.

The club discussed the primitive camping trip they are planning for March 17 to 18, near Redlands, to celebrate the Girl Scout Birthday.

Five-year pins were presented to Mary Blount and Donna Arasmith. A membership star was awarded to Donna Dunklin. Joan Donald was invested into the group.

Pierrette Major, beauty consultant, demonstrated on four Scouts the proper way for teenagers to apply make-up. She was assisted by Ruth Davis.

Refreshments were served by the mothers. Cupcakes with candles helped to remind all of the 44th Birthday of Girl Scouting.

The troop is under the leadership of Mesdames A. A. Krauszer and Fred Hansen.
