

Junior Club Views Civil Defense Duties

Members of the Torrance Junior Woman's club accepted with purpose and determination the responsibilities outlined to them by George Powell, Civil Defense director of Torrance, Mrs. Lee

E. Allen, civil defense chairman, reported. Powell spoke at the meeting held recently at the Woman's club house. He listed among the vitally important duties of each citizen the necessity for developing a prepared mental attitude. The most thorough preparations by the Civil Defense authorities still depend on the intelligence and control of the private citizen in a crisis, he said.

"We must keep calm, keep cool, think, and be able to judge what is happening and what we must do swiftly and well," he pointed out. "Emergency action can save lives." He urged methods of preparedness such as: making sure of a shelter area in the home, having fire prevention and fire fighting equipment on hand, and assembling provision such as food, flashlights, and a radio. Powell stressed the importance of family conferences on the subject, so that in a crisis, each member of the family knows where to obtain the provisions, where each is to go and what duties are required from each member. Members of the Junior Woman's club were also interested to learn what they as a group could do, Mrs. Allen said. Groups can serve the community by providing a shelter or First Aid stations with firm and calm leadership.
