Happy, Happy Easter!
Spring being the time when everything looks new and fresh... makes us gals (and guys too, I suspect) take a good long look at ourselves! Like the old lady who had never had her picture taken, finally gave in to her family and visited the photographers. When the proofs arrived, she was far from pleased. Down she stomped to the photos. "Is this me?" she demanded, holding out the picture. "It is, madam," was the reply. "And it's a perfect likeness." The old lady looked at the picture again, grew thoughtful for a moment, then remarked, "It's a humblin' sight, ain't it?"

So if you're feeling a little dreary at the moment, don't run your picture taken... run right over to Sam Levy's instead... cause new feathers make new-looking birds, and Levy's has some right purty new trimmings for you and yours. Frinstance...

WOMAN SIDE
Some of the fabulous clothes shown at the El Camino College Faculty Wives' Club Fashion Show last week... clothes by Sam Levy Dept. Store, naturally... eye-filling and purse-satisfying clothes that completely captured the capacity audience. Especially...

The white linen sheath... trimmed with red and navy blue outlining collar and low waist. Smart, cool, stunning! The black and white check, back belted sheath by Mancini... slit pockets, deep back pleat, its own white chiffon scarf, three quarters, buttoned sleeves. Expertly tailored for the "perfect lady" look!

And talking about that "perfect lady" look... the fastest way to achieve it... get into black and white or navy and white and you've got it made! Most especially our collection, and it is a collection! Skirts either straight line or with controlled fullness, white collars, or dot trimmed. They're all ready to go Easter parading... or anywhere else.

Ensembles... the heart of a sweetheart of a wardrobe for Spring! Print dresses beneath long, slit linen coats with the new Far East look. Each part a handsome entity separately... yet perfect go-togethers because the coat linings match the dress.

And talking about matching... the made-for-each-other cashmere or Wunda-Lam sweaters and flannel skirts in eatable Spring colors!

And bags, bags, bags! Plastics, straws, leathers, metallics... all colors, shapes and sizes... all guaranteed to bring gasps of admiration.

Man Side
The suit department tells us you've been buying suits like mad, might as well, because you'll never have a better selection. Like smooth, blue gray flannels, with flap pockets (including the custom touch of a small third pocket for change that always looks so distinguished)... Or rugged tweeds in blues, grays, tans and char. And corduroy sport coats with the cord running horizontally. There isn't a better extra coat... in hunt brown, dove gray and char again. Honest, Fellas, you'll get gasps of admiration too! One gasp, at least, guaranteed with every suit and coat you buy at Sam Levy's.

Our Side
Store look brighter and gay-er to you? No... we reluctantly admit, it's not just the merchandise that causes it. Sam got real ambitious last week... didn't have enough to do between community and charity drives I guess... so he had new ceiling fixtures installed. Darndest thing you ever saw... one week before Easter! But all you nice customers seemed to take it beautifully in stride... found the merchandise even though it was covered up for a while!

So from all of us... all good wishes for a happy, peaceful, healthy, prosperous Easter... to all of you! And don't forget, part of the fun of living in our town is shopping right here at home. Especially at 1311 Sartori. Sam Levy Dept. Store. Naturally!

QUESTION: If 10% of my fire insurance can be applied to outbuildings and I have three outbuildings, does that mean they are covered up to 30% of my total insurance?

ANSWER: No, the 10% applies to all your outbuildings together although if only one outbuilding was destroyed you could claim up to the full 10% limit for the one building.

Anderson To Emcee
Kenneth Anderson will be the toastmaster of the evening at the installation of club officers Tuesday evening, April 3. Anderson who resides at 23829 Eshelman avenue, has lived in this area since 1940 and is serving with the United States Navy stationed at Long Beach. According to Frank Gorbet, the club publicity chairman, Anderson has an interesting program planned.

Max Sacks, educational director for the Southern section of Toastmasters International, will install the new officers. Gilbert Kyllingstad of 1665 West 252nd street, Harbor City, will stage one of his noted Table Topics sessions. Speakers of the evening will be Kenneth McBreen, immediate past-president; Dr. Warren, Low, secretary-elect; Charles Smith, and Harry Harwood, both new members in the club.

Vast Increase
Figures released by the Southern California Gas company show 10,237 new customers were added last year here in the firm's Southwest Division, which serves the Centinela Valley, Torrance and the beach cities.

Attention All Team Managers
Softball and Slo-Pitch softball team managers desiring to enter a team in the Torrance Recreation Department's program during the immediate season, are urged to contact Elmer "Red" Moon, City Athletic Director, at FA. 8-4108 at their earliest possible convenience.

The play was a big success and the players were very well cast, especially Ray Davis, Joan Reed, Lionel Gillespie, Nora Cummings, Janice Sellers, Eddie McNamara, and Jeanne Shif-ferd. Congratulations to the senior class for a job well done.

Dances, Dances, More Dances
The Girls Athletic association is planning a backward dance sometime in the near future. The Saxon Band's Sweethearts Ball is coming in April 21. It is a semi-formal dance to be held at the Civic auditorium.

The sophomore class is planning a sock-hop, and I have heard rumors that the freshmen are going to give a dance.

News Staff Attends Press Day
The North Wind staff all took the day off to attend its second press day at El Camino college last Friday. I am proud to report that two of the staff members took awards for their fine work. Ann Rutledge, editor-in-chief, took second place in the feature story division, and Lella Santor, news editor, took honorable mention in the editorials.

For a first year newspaper this is very good. These girls have only been writing for a year and a half. There were eight other schools competing in these contests along with North high.

Band Enters State Finals
The Saxon Band will travel to Fullerton April 14 to compete in the state final music festival. They will be up against some of the top bands in Southern California. They will also compete in the marching division this year and that evening all bands that march will form a mass band and march at Disneyland.

I'm sure everyone will be pulling for the band to bring back some more awards.

Tartar Band Rates Tops
The Tartar Band of Torrance high school returned from the District Music Festival at Bell Gardens with top honors recently.

All three judges gave them a superior (I) rating on their prepared numbers and the sight-reading judge rated them I.

These accomplishments send the Tartar Band on to the Regional Festival, which is to be held at Fullerton on April 13 and 14.
