Shoe Company Holding 3-Day Anniversary Sale

Marking the anniversary of its first year in Gardena Valley, Innes Shoe store, 14804 Crenshaw boulevard, is holding a celebration and sale today, tomorrow, and Saturday. Harry Hukill, manager, said: "We are very happy and proud of our first year in Gardena Valley as the patronage shown our store was more than the company ever dared to anticipate. Consequently, we are celebrating with this sale."

Free gift of an orchid will be given to every woman who visits the store, with balloons being given to children. Also, all children who celebrate their birthdays during the three days will be given an additional gift. Advertisements featured during the 3-day sales event are a skimmer flat in nine colors... black, panama, red, pink, navy, powder blue, citrus lemon, exotic melon, and white; a suave low heel sandal in pink, aqua, and white; and the popular Paulette, a closed heel and closed toe wedgie in benedictine, red, black, and oyster shell.

"We encourage persons to use our 90 day charge accounts, as many find it the most convenient way of shopping," Hukill said. "We are happy that we were able to provide shoes for so many desperate persons during the prolonged sand and gravel strike... in their case the time limit was extended to six months or until the men were back working. With our open charge account there are no fees or carrying charges." Plenty of free off-street parking is provided for customers.

EC Spring Musical Scheduled

Sunday, April 8 the El Camino College Campus theater will echo to music and song as the college stages its annual Spring Musical concert at 8 p.m. According to information released by Hamilton Maddaford, assistant director of student personnel, the performance will consist of the combined efforts of a capella choir, the college community orchestra, the Brass choir, and various singers from the advanced voice classes who will present solos.

Directors of these groups are R. Neil Hill of the a capella choir, Calvin Greer of the Brass choir, Hamilton Maddaford of the college community orchestra, and Dr. Gordon Orme, who will present performers from the advanced voice classes. "Since our campus theater seats only 354 people, and a capacity crowd is expected," said Maddaford, "it has become necessary to issue tickets for the performance."

"The tickets are free," continued Maddaford, "but since there is to be one performance only, those who wish to attend the concert are urged to get their tickets early to insure themselves a seat."

Tickets are available in the Campus center bookstore on a first come, first served basis, said Maddaford. The event is open to the public.
