

Gotts-Bangert Wedding Held

White candles in a holy place, beauty that glows in a bride's face, and the dedication of a love pledged to last unto everlasting, were present at the formal ceremony uniting Miss Virginia Ellen Gotts, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Gotts of 259 Cypress, Lomita; to Ronald Lee Bangert.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wolf of Compton.

Father Patrick J. McGuinness officiated at the ceremony which was held at Nativity Catholic church on Monday morning, April 2.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, was enchanting in a gown of seafoam white lace frothing over gleaming white satin. The gown was styled with a high Queen Anne collar, leg-of-mutton sleeves, and a bouffant sweep of lace forming the train which widened from the hooped skirt.

Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion fell from a princess crown of pearls. Her bouquet was a shower of stephanotis, lilies of the valley and white carnations, centered with a white orchid.

The flower girl, Miss Deborah Gotts, cousin of the bride; wore a white princess style frock and a tiny wisp of veil and flowers, in replica of the bride. The ring bearer, Kenneth Wolf, brother of the groom, wore a Navy uniform in replica of the groom who is a Seaman Third Class in the United States Navy.

Miss Charlene Sunny Gotts, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, in a ballerina-length frock of dusty-rose taffeta. She carried a bouquet of rose tulips.

Attendants
The bridal attendants were Miss Elaine Sterling in blue net over taffeta, carrying white tulips; Miss Rose Marie Barbosa in orchid, carrying pink tulips; Miss Carol Burque in pale green, carrying yellow tulips; and Miss Elena Tevera in yellow, carry yellow tulips.

Mrs. Gotts was lovely in a frock of pale blue lace with a pale blue hat and black accessories. The mother of the groom wore a charming navy-blue dress with a sheer navy redingote and navy accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white gardenias.

Serving as best man was A. O. Steele, brother-in-law of the bride. Ushers were Carl Gotts, the bride's uncle; and Norman Clark.

The reception was held at the Gotts home immediately following the ceremony. Over 200 guests attended this marriage of the daughter of one of Torrance's most prominent men. Charles Gotts is president of the Retail Merchant's association of the Chamber of Commerce and the owner of Daniel's cafe, 1625 Cabrillo.
