Hobby and Flower Show Attracts Talented Children

ALL ENTRIES MUST BE IN BY APRIL 25

Small Packages

Just as "good things come in small packages," so do good things come from small people as proved by the entries being made for the Children's section of the Hobby, Art, and Flower Show: (l-r) Barbara Yackie, Sandra Smith, Roberta Fiorelli, and (sitting on desk) Karen Kline.

The children's exhibits are always one of the most interesting and often surprising facets of any amateur show.

Torrance Hobby, Art, and Flower Show is no exception. In our vicinity we have a number of talented children, Mrs. Victor Benstead said.

Young people all over the city are planning their exhibits. Young Mark Hunt, son of Mrs. M. Hunt, was the first to enter the miniature class in flower arrangements.

Linda Byk, daughter of Mrs. Fred Byk; and Mickey Banks, son of Mrs. Joe Banks; who have won a number of ribbons for flower arrangements in the past, are expected to have entries again this year, Mrs. Benstead reported.

Barbara Yackie, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Yackie of 5602 Palos Verdes blvd. is following in the footsteps of her mother who is a member of the Beau Jardin club. Barbara is planning a flower arrangement entry.

Karen Kline, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. F. Kline of 1755 Iris, will enter her painting of a clown in the Hobby and Art section. Mrs. Kline is vice-president of the JayCettes.

Roberta Fiorelli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Fiorelli of 1003 Acacia, is preparing her detailed diagram of a horse for the Hobby and Art section. Mrs. Fiorelli is a member of the Torrance Terrace Garden club.

Petite Sandra Smith, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith of 815 Kornblom, is entering some of her favorite dolls in the Hobby section. Mrs. Smith is a member of the JayCettes.

The civic auditorium will again be the setting for the annual Hobby, Art and Flower Show, which will be presented on April 27, 28, and 29 by four Torrance organizations interested in furthering civic culture:

Beau Jardin Garden club, Torrance Terrace Garden club, Torrance JayCettes, and the Torrance Recreation department.

Entries Welcome
There will be classifications for a wide variety of entries.

Those interested may call the entry chairmen immediately, so they may complete the spacing arrangements.

For the flower exhibits, Mrs. A. W. Adkins, Beau Jardin; or Mrs. D. W. Quigley, Torrance Terrace Garden club, may be contacted.

Mrs. Gordon Jones or Mrs. Tom Russell of the JayCettes are taking entries for the Hobby and Art section.

Prizes will be awarded in each classification by three judges who are well known in Flower Show activities in Los Angeles and Glendale.

Entry deadline is Wednesday, April 25.
An added attraction of the show will be the awarding of door prizes each hour, Mrs. Benstead announced.

In the past, the Hobby, Art, and Flower Show has created much interest in the South Bay area and it is hoped that this year many residents will join in sharing the interests of their leisure time, Mrs. Benstead concluded.

DID YOU KNOW that the classified ads of the Torrance Press are one of the most valuable parts of the paper? Whether you want to sell, trade, buy, or even want a baby sitter for evening, classified is there for you. Read and advertise, won't you? You won't be sorry! Phone FA. 8-2345.

Trailerettes Stress Family Comradeship Charity And Fun

"Juvenile delinquency can be prevented by providing activities that are fun and establishing a feeling of understanding and comradeship between young people and their parents," said Mrs. John D. Oriani.

"That was one of our goals in establishing the Trailerettes," she said.

The Trailerettes is a new group which has been organized for the definite purpose of showing young girls how to help others less fortunate than themselves.

It started when a group of young girls wanted to start a club, but did not know what kind of club to start. The mothers decided to channel these youthful energies into a worthwhile project.

Although all of the members are now trailer residents, that is not one of the things necessary for joining, Mrs. Oriani announced.

The one real requirement for being a member is that young girls from 8 to 18 years of age and their mothers be willing to devote one evening per week to club activities, she said.

Mothers and daughters interested in joining may call Mrs. Oriani, DA. 6-7150; or Mrs. Mary West, president, FA 8-1355.

Hand craft project now underway is the making of costume jewelry.

The group is working on a plan whereby they will adopt the Little Flower Missionary as their orphanage. They will then give aid to that home from their projects.

Recently the group went to the filming of the Pinky Lee television show. Wana June Buck, one of the young members, was chosen to appear on the show. She received many valuable prizes and told Lee of the proposed plans for the club. He displayed much interest in the group and Mrs. Oriani has

Family of Fish Fanciers Will Enter Hobby Show

This year the Torrance Hobby, Art and Flower Show will have an even greater representation from the Harbor Aquarium society than that of last year.

It is the goal of the society to have bigger and better entries each year, Mrs. Sam Harris, editor of the Aquarium Paper announced.

The Torrance Hobby Show is the only hobby show that is entered by the group.

A new Aquarist entrant this year will be Charles Jones of 16534 Atkinson street, North Torrance. He has stimulated this interest in his family. His wife and his daughter are entering a tank, with the three tanks he is entering.

Jones has been a breeder of tropical fish for over ten years, and such an enthusiast on the subject that he has converted his garage into a hatchery.

His varieties of fish include: angels, red wags, and many others that have won him nine winning ribbons.

He is willing to sell the fish that he breeds.

The Harbor Aquarium society meets once a month to hear lectures and see movies on the various types of fish. The group boasts an active membership of 80 people.

It is not mandatory that anyone wishing to enter the fish category belong to the Aquarium society said Mrs. John Mangan of the sponsoring JayCettes.

It is advised by Mrs. Harris however because of the special prizes being awarded by the group itself.

Anyone wishing to enter as an individual entry may call either of the Hobby and Art entry chairmen: Mrs. Gordon Jones, Davenport 6-1617, or Mrs. Tom Russell, Frontier 5-7170.

Entries will be open until April 25.
